FRONT OFFICE

PETER ANGELOS—MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 15-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series twice, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2131st consecutive game. In a testament to the enduring popularity of the team, in 2008 the Orioles welcomed their 100 millionth fan in franchise history and Oriole Park at Camden Yards welcomed its 50 millionth fan in just 17 seasons. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development, both in the United States and internationally. This increased emphasis resulted in the signing of the club's first Japanese pitcher, Koji Uehara, in January of this year. President of Baseball Operations Andy MacPhail and his staff are paving the way to a new era of Orioles baseball designed to further fortify the player development and scouting areas while building on the talent already at the major league level.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network had, at its core, the preservation of the historic Baltimore Orioles franchise. Challenged by the relocation of the Washington Nationals, Mr. Angelos tirelessly worked to maintain the integrity of the Orioles and its television territory as a valuable asset for the Orioles franchise.

The success of the network over the long term will provide the territorial and financial stability necessary to secure the future of the Orioles franchise in Baltimore for generations to come.

In conjunction with Major League Baseball's relocation of the Nationals in Washington, D.C., Mr. Angelos, refusing to allow the division or diminution of the Orioles' exclusive television territory, offered instead to share the Orioles' exclusive television territory with the Nationals and to form a jointly owned regional sports network that would professionally produce and present the games, shows, and programming of both teams throughout the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area and the seven-state region served by MASN.

Orioles games are now distributed to a larger audience than ever, as the network is available to more than six million households from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network introduced pregame and postgame shows for every game and recruited network-caliber broadcast teams, which include two Hall of Famers and two World Series MVPs. In 2009, the network began its fifth year televising Washington Nationals games and its third season as the Orioles' television outlet as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

In addition to televising every available Nationals and Orioles game, Mr. Angelos thought it important that the network highlight local collegiate programs whose games had not previously been televised. Many local Maryland schools are among the 300 NCAA football, basketball, and lacrosse games televised by MASN every year.

The network has won 19 awards for advertising and promotional excellence, including 2 Emmys, 2 American Marketing Association awards, and 15 local and regional Addys. In 2008, MASN was the only local television network in Baltimore or Washington to win regional Addy awards, where it competed with the best advertising from Philadelphia, Washington, and New York.

Mr. Angelos has been an industry leader in professional baseball and has helped strengthen the national pastime. He was the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for a second such agreement in the fall of 2008.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in utilizing baseball as a bridge between people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic two-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has taken constructive steps off the field to enhance the fan experience. In order to keep baseball games an affordable family experience, Mr. Angelos has insisted the club offer a range of ticket pricing. Furthermore, at his direction, Camden Yards maintains one of the most liberal food policies in all of professional sports, allowing outside food and beverages to be brought into the ballpark. In 2009, the fan experience will be further enhanced by a complete upgrade of the ballpark's sound system and a conversion of the in-park video boards to a high definition (HD) signal.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. Under Mr. Angelos' direction, the club launched OriolesREACH in 2007 to centralize its community relations initiatives in an effort to better reach those who needed the most assistance. Over 10,000 children experience a game for free at Oriole Park each season thanks to the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program, which provides complimentary tickets, transportation, concessions and souvenirs to those who might otherwise not be able to attend a game. Other annual OriolesREACH initiatives include a Food Drive, Blood Drive, Equipment Drive and Kids Holiday Party, among other diverse and meaningful programs.

Through cash contributions, ticket and memorabilia donations, club resources and promotion, over 800 non-profit groups are aided by the Orioles each year. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 14th straight year acting as the sponsor of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

Last season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH established Shannon's Fund, a $50,000 endowment at the University of Maryland Medical Center to provide financial assistance to hospital cancer patients and their families. Created in memory of Shannon Obeker, the team's Director of Community Outreach who bravely fought cancer for over a year before passing away in January 2007 at age 29, Shannon's Fund is administered by UMMC. The funds will be used to assist patients and family members with expenses associated with the treatment process, including hospital parking, alternate housing, food costs and household bills.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution. Mr. Angelos is also an active supporter of the Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Association. In 1995, the Orioles added field-level seats at Camden Yards for the games leading up to and including Cal Ripken Jr.'s breaking of Lou Gehrig's consecutive games played streak. Proceeds from the sale of tickets for these seats raised $1.3 million and the Orioles added an additional $700,000 for a total donation of $2 million to the ALS Association.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore when he was a child, and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products. Throughout his legal career, Mr. Angelos has been a champion for ordinary citizens and has taken on some of the most powerful corporations in the country, including asbestos manufacturers, the tobacco companies and the pharmaceutical industry.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side. He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain their presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos is also a strong supporter of the Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture, giving the first $1 million pledge to the Baltimore Museum. He serves on the Board of Directors and was instrumental in helping the museum secure funding from the state of Maryland.

FRONT OFFICE

Mr. Angelos also serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University, University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Moany Center- National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of The Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is Executive Vice President of the Orioles, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1963, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCL. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keilty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyf Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY—VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October—the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States—sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with inventing, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon and, most recently, Red Rabbit.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne.

JOHN P. ANGELOS—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 16th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President. In his current capacity, Angelos oversees the Corporate Sales and Sponsorships, Financial Operations, Sales and Fan Services, Concessions, Ballpark Operations, Communications and Public Relations divisions of the ballpark.

Angelos joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman and oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations and Customer Service departments of the company to provide more personal service to fans when they call, write or visit Camden Yards.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, Angelos received a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Duke University and a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore.

John resides in downtown Baltimore.

ROBERT AMES—VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 16th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. He was promoted to vice president in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Ames is responsible for general administration, accounting, information systems, human resources, purchasing, concessions, retail sales, insurance and special projects. He also serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Ames is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs, the American Institute of CPAs, and the Society for Human Resources Management.

Ames resides on a small dairy goat farm in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lyndsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Real Life Community Church, and currently serves on the church board. In his free time, Ames' passions include gardening and motorcycle riding with his son.

LOU KOUSOURIS—VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 16th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command, and has helped raise over $4 million annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fund-raising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law who operates Camp Puh'tok, a summer camp for children in northern Baltimore County.

ANDY MacPHAIL—PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

A member of one of baseball's most honored and respected families, Andy MacPhail returned to his childhood hometown of Baltimore on June 20, 2007, when he was named President of Baseball Operations for the Orioles. He oversees all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the ballclub.

MacPhail, whose father and grandfather both are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame, had assisted Major League Baseball with a variety of projects for several months before he joined the Orioles organization. He spent the previous 12 years through the 2006 season as president and chief executive officer of the Chicago Cubs. Prior to joining the Cubs, he served as executive vice president and general manager of the Minnesota Twins for nine seasons.

MacPhail joined the Cubs in September 1994. Chicago reached the playoffs twice during his tenure, which also included a two-year stint as general manager, from July 2000 to July 2002. Prior to his arrival, the Cubs had reached the postseason only twice in the previous 50 seasons. In 2003, Chicago also won their first postseason series since 1908. As part of his duties with the Cubs, MacPhail oversaw the modernization and expansion of historic Wrigley Field. The Cubs had never drawn more than 2.4 million fans per year before MacPhail's arrival, but drew over three million fans in each of his final three seasons with the club.

In MacPhail's nine seasons as the Twins' general manager, Minnesota won two World Series championships, in 1987 and 1991. When he was named the Twins' GM in 1985 at age 32, he was the youngest person to hold that position in the majors. He was honored by The Sporting News as its 1991 Major League Executive of the Year and also earned United Press International's American League Executive of the Year award after building a team that went from last place to World Champions in one season.

MacPhail began his professional career in 1976 as business manager for the Cubs' Bradenton affiliate in the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League. The following year he moved to Chicago as an assistant in the Cubs' park operations department. He joined the player development department a year later and eventually became assistant director of player development and scouting before leaving the Cubs in 1982 to become assistant general manager of the Houston Astros.

He joined the Minnesota organization in August 1985 as vice president of player personnel and was promoted to executive vice president/general manager in November 1986.

MacPhail spent eight years growing up in the Baltimore area, while his father, Lee MacPhail, was general manager of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. Lee spent 45 years as a baseball executive and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. As GM of the Orioles, he oversaw the team's rise from second division to contender in the early 1960s. He also served as general manager of the New York Yankees, spent 10 seasons as the American League president and served as president of baseball's Player Relations Committee.

Andy's grandfather, Larry MacPhail, was also elected to the Hall of Fame, in 1978. During his executive career, Larry helped pioneer night baseball as owner of the Cincinnati Reds in 1935, won a National League championship as owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941 and won the World Series as owner of the New York Yankees in 1947.

Andy became the third member of the family to win The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award when he was honored in 1991; Larry earned the honors in 1939 and Lee was named in 1966.

MacPhail also served on MLB's negotiating committees following the 2002 and 2006 seasons, helping to work out new collective bargaining agreements with the MLB Players Association. Those were the first two agreements reached without a work stoppage in more than 30 years of labor negotiations between MLB and the players' union.

MacPhail is also one of five MLB executives on the 12-member committee to elect executives to Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Born in Bronxville, NY on April 5, 1953, MacPhail is a 1976 graduate of Dickinson College. He and his wife, Lark, live in Baltimore with their two sons, William and Andrew.

WAYNE KRIVSKY—SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Wayne Krivsky joined the Orioles in November 2008 as Special Assistant to the President of Baseball Operations. The former Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds brings over 30 years of experience in baseball operations to the organization and is involved in all aspects of the Orioles' major league operations, including scouting, contracts and other baseball administration responsibilities.

Krivsky's three decades of experience include nearly 27 seasons as an assistant or special assistant to general managers in the Texas Rangers, Minnesota Twins and New York Mets organizations, with scouting and player evaluation experience at all levels of development.

Krivsky most recently served as special assistant to Mets General Manager Omar Minaya during the 2008 season. Prior to that role, he spent over two years as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

As General Manager of the Reds, Krivsky was responsible for the acquisition of some of the team's best young players. He signed pitcher Jared Burton and outfielder Josh Hamilton through the 2006 Rule 5 draft and acquired second baseman Brandon Phillips from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for a player to be named later in April 2006 and infielder Jeff Keppinger from the Kansas City Royals in exchange for a minor league pitcher in January 2007. Krivsky then sent Hamilton to the Rangers in exchange for 2008 All-Star pitcher Edinson Volquez and pitcher Danny Herrera in December 2007.

The 54-year-old began his baseball career in January 1977 in the ticket department of the Rangers, moving to the Baseball Operations department two years later as assistant director of player development and scouting. He was promoted to assistant general manager in October 1980 and served in that capacity for Texas until he was hired by the Twins in December 1994 as special assistant to general manager Terry Ryan. He became assistant general manager for Minnesota in November 1998 and spent over eight years in that position before he was hired in February 2006 as the Reds' General Manager.

Krivsky was born in Niagara Falls, New York and is a 1972 graduate of New Canaan (CT) High School. He attended Duke University, where he played baseball for three seasons and earned a degree in management science in 1976. He and his wife, Linda, reside in northern Kentucky.

JOE JORDAN—DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Joe Jordan is in his fifth season as the Orioles' Director of Amateur Scouting. His first four drafts have been widely praised in baseball circles, helping to provide the Orioles' farm system with both deep and highly rated classes of both pitching and position talent. The club's 2007 first-round draft pick, catcher Matt Wieters, was named the 2008 Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America.

Jordan, 47, was named to his current position on November 16, 2004, joining the Orioles after eight seasons with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as National Crosschecker for the Marlins before coming to the Orioles. He began his scouting career in 1997 as an area scout for the Expos before being named Midwest Supervisor in 2001. He moved into the same capacity with Florida when most of Montreal's front office staff moved to the Florida organization in 2002, and was named National Crosschecker a year later.

Selected as a catcher in the 19th round of the 1985 draft by San Francisco, Jordan batted .213 in 33 games for Everett, the Giants' Class A team in the short-season Northwest League, in 1985. He was injured the following spring and was released at the end of spring training. He returned to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, received his degree in 1987 and spent three years as an assistant baseball coach for the Sooners, 1988-90.

Jordan spent seven years in the financial investment business before returning to baseball as a scout for the Expos in 1997.

Joe and his wife, Kim, have been married for 24 years. They live in Blanchard, OK, with their daughter, Alexandra, 15.

MATT KLENTAK—DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Matt Klentak enters his second season as Director of Baseball Operations with the Orioles, having been named to the position on March 4, 2008. In this role, he assists Andy MacPhail in all phases of baseball operations, including scouting, player development, contract negotiations and the overall construction of the Major League roster.

Before joining the Orioles, Klentak spent four years working in Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department. While there, he interacted with the baseball operations departments of all 30 teams, providing advice and interpretations on the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and Major League Rules, serving as a key administrator in both the Salary Arbitration Support Program and the Rule 4 Draft Support Program, providing economic and baseball analyses for Owners Meetings, GM Meetings and Scouting/Farm Director Meetings and serving as the primary contact for Club personnel regarding Major League contract terms, language and data maintenance in MLB's IT systems.

Klentak also was a key member of the MLB Collective Bargaining team that successfully negotiated a second consecutive CBA without a work stoppage in 2006. It was on this team that Klentak and MacPhail first worked together.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's Office, Klentak spent the 2003 season in the Baseball Operations department of the Colorado Rockies. While there, he gained experience in video and advance scouting, coordinated the inflow of all amateur scouting reports and authored several baseball/financial analyses throughout the season.

Born and raised in Medfield, MA, Klentak graduated in 2002 with a degree in Economics from Dartmouth College, where he was a four-year baseball letterman, three-year starting shortstop and team captain his senior year. The Big Green won two Ivy League Red Rolfe Division championships (2000 and 2001) during his playing days.

Klentak and his wife, Lauren, reside in Baltimore.

LEE MacPHAIL IV—DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

No stranger to the Orioles front office, Lee MacPhail brings a wealth of experience and pedigree to his position as Director of Professional Scouting. The 2009 season marks the second year of his second stint with the club.

Named to the position on October 30, 2007, MacPhail began his professional baseball career while still in high school as an intern in the Orioles' public relations office. He spent 10 years with the Orioles, 1986-95, eventually serving as assistant director of player development and scouting.

He spent the 1996 season as assistant to the general manager for the Texas Rangers, working mostly in amateur and professional scouting. Following the season, he was named Director of Scouting for Cleveland, a position he held for two years during which he coordinated drafts in which the Indians netted six big league players, including 2007 Cy Young Award winner C.C. Sabathia.

MacPhail, 39, was an area scout for the Minnesota Twins for 3 1/2 years (1999-2002) before spending five years in professional scouting and administrative capacities for the Montreal/Washington franchise, from 2002-06. He served as director of professional scouting for the team in Montreal before taking on duties as director of baseball administration and special assignment scout when the Expos relocated to Washington. He spent the 2007 season with the Twins as a professional scout prior to rejoining the Orioles.

Lee is the 4th generation in a family with deep roots in baseball. Both his great-grandfather, Larry MacPhail, and his grandfather, Lee MacPhail Jr., are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame. Larry was owner of the Cincinnati Reds, Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees in the 1930s & 40s. Lee Jr. was general manager of the Orioles (1958-65) and Yankees (1966-73) and served as president of the American League from 1974-83. His father, Lee III, was general manager of the Reading Phillies when he was killed in an automobile accident in 1969. His uncle, Andy MacPhail, is the Orioles' President of Baseball Operations.

Born in Baltimore and raised in the Hunt Valley area in Baltimore County, MacPhail attended Friends School. He graduated cum laude from Lafayette College in 1991. He is married to the former Kristin Grant, whose brother, Brad Grant, currently is scouting director for the Cleveland Indians. Lee and Kristin currently reside in Shaker Heights, OH, with their three children -- daughters Ellie and Olivia and son Quinn (Lee V).

DAVID STOCKSTILL—DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for the past 15 years, was named as the club's Director of Minor League Operations on November 3, 2004. His title was changed to Director of Player Development in 2008.

Stockstill, 51, has served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being elevated to the top farm system post. In his final two years before being named to his current position, he held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems, including three seasons at AAA Oklahoma City, before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He hit .283 with 27 homers and a league-leading 101 RBI with Class A Wausau in 1979, capturing Midwest League MVP honors. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

Stockstill was born and still resides in Hurley, MO, outside of Springfield. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley HS and is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America. At John Brown, he played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

David's brother, John, serves as the Orioles' Director of International Scouting.

JOHN STOCKSTILL—DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

John Stockstill begins his fourth year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in January 2006 to oversee the club's major league and professional scouting, but with the creation of the Orioles' academy in the Dominican Republic and a renewed emphasis on amateur scouting outside the United States, Stockstill focuses on the club's international scouting in the Far East, Latin America and beyond. These efforts paid dividends in the signing of the club's first Japanese player, Koji Uehara, to a two-year contract in January.

Prior to joining the Orioles organization, Stockstill had spent his entire professional baseball career—as minor league player, scout and front office executive—with the Chicago Cubs. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system, finishing with Class A Davenport in the Midwest League in 1981. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and served as an assistant basketball coach there before moving to Benedictine College in Kansas as an assistant basketball coach. He became Benedictine's baseball coach in 1986 and also rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout a year later. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

John's brother, David, serves as the organization's Director of Player Development. David was also a product of the Cubs minor league system.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson, (7). They reside in White Hall, MD.

BRIAN GRAHAM—COORDINATOR OF INSTRUCTION FOR THE MINOR LEAGUES

Brian begins his 28th year in professional baseball and his second season working in the Orioles minor league system. As Coordinator of Instruction, Brian will oversee the teaching and instructional process for the seven minor league affiliates.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Brian spent six seasons as the Director of Player Development for the Pittsburgh Pirates. During that six year period, the Pirates minor league system finished with the fourth best overall winning percentage and was honored as the 2002 Topps Baseball "Organization of the Year." Brian also served as the interim general manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates in September 2007.

Before joining the Pirates, Brian was a major league coach with the American League Central Division Champion Cleveland Indians for two seasons (1998-1999) and with the Baltimore Orioles in 2000. Graham spent the 2001 season as the Field Coordinator for the Florida Marlins.

In nine seasons as a minor league manager in the Cleveland Indians organization, Graham's teams finished above .500 each year, compiling a 704-491 (.589) record. Graham managed eight consecutive playoff teams and was a staff member on 10 consecutive playoff teams (eight as a manager and two as a big league coach). He was named the Carolina League's Manager of the Year in 1991, the "Best Managerial Prospect" by Eastern League Managers/Baseball America in 1993 and Minor League Manager of the Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. Brian also managed in the Dominican Republic Winter League for Aguilas (1991) and also coached (1993) and managed (1994) in the Arizona Fall League.

Originally selected by the Oakland A's in the fourth round of the 1962 June draft, the former second baseman played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. Brian played both football and baseball at UCLA and was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team. He was also a first team all PAC-10 infielder in 1982 and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Graham was elected to UCLA's Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996 and was inducted into the Buffalo Bisons Hall of Fame in 2008.

Brian was born 4/9/60 in San Diego, CA. He graduated from Granite Hills High School in 1978 and attended UCLA for four years before receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack (16) and daughters Kelsey (14) and Kendall (6).

JUNE NAPOLI—COORDINATOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

June Napoli is in her second year as Coordinator of Baseball Operations after spending the previous 7 1/2 years working in Major League Baseball's office in New York, where she served in a variety of positions.

Napoli served as Executive Assistant to Sandy Alderson, the former Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations for MLB. During her time in Baseball Operations, she was involved in the full spectrum of functions related to baseball front office. She most recently served as Executive Assistant to MLB's Executive Vice President of Business, Tim Brosnan.

Prior to coming to MLB, June was a paralegal at a Long Island, NY, law firm.

June and her husband, Roger, reside in Towson, MD.

BIRDS BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954 the Orioles and New York Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley. The Orioles acquired pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert; third baseman Kal Segrist; shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

IN MEMORIAM

JIM McKAY

1921-2008

The Orioles lost a member of their family and the sports world lost one of its greatest voices in June 2008, when team investor Jim McKay passed away. A visionary and a pioneer of sports broadcasting who brought the excitement of live competition into the homes of millions of Americans, Jim was at the forefront of many historic moments in the last 60 years. He was an innovator whose passion for sports was matched by his integrity. His was a trusted voice in the world of broadcasting. With all of his national and international success, Jim never forgot where he came from, his Maryland roots. He founded the Maryland Million to showcase the best in our state's horse racing industry.

He will be greatly missed, but we are grateful for his life and legacy.

IN MEMORIAM

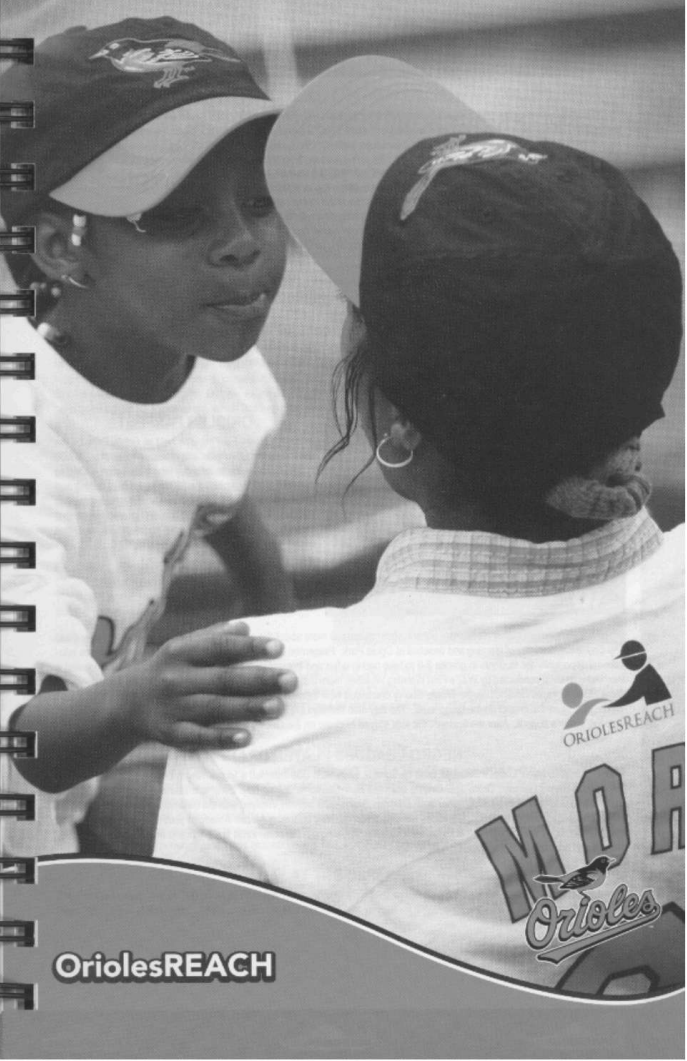

VANESSA SANDLER

1953-2008

The Orioles mourn the loss of Vanessa Sandler, a part-time team employee for 22 years prior to her death in September 2008. Vanessa was a huge Orioles fan who worked in the productions department from 1986-1988 before moving to the reception desk of the team's front office in 1989. Although she worked full-time for a pediatric dentist, Vanessa assisted front office visitors at nearly every home game and was a familiar and friendly face to fans and employees alike. Vanessa was known as a generous and caring person who would do anything for a friend. Her shopping for "just the right gift" was legendary. She was a devoted daughter, sister and aunt.

She is greatly missed by all who knew her.

OriolesREACH

ORIOLES REACH IN THE COMMUNITY

For more than 50 years, the Baltimore Orioles have worked hard to give back to the local community, becoming involved in a variety of area programs and initiatives.

Through OriolesREACH, the team seeks opportunities to reach out to our neighbors and help our fans improve their daily lives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also established a collection of initiatives under the current ownership group. Here is a brief summary of some of the efforts that have taken place during the past year both in the community and at Oriole Park.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated over $8.6 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

ORIOLES FANFEST

In 2008, Orioles FanFest was held at Oriole Park for the second consecutive year and attracted more than 10,000 fans to Camden Yards for a day long celebration of Orioles Baseball. Fans watched the 2008 Orioles take batting and fielding practice, and enjoyed player autograph sessions featuring the entire team, fan forums, interactive games, museum exhibits and a special memorabilia sale that raised more than $30,000 for OriolesREACH.

FIELD TRIP DAY

On May 1, thousands of area elementary school students learned more about the science of weather during the first-ever Field Trip Day, a fun-filled day of learning and baseball at Oriole Park. Presented by MASN and WJZ, the day provided a unique educational opportunity for students in grades 3-8 to take part in a fun and interactive program about weather. The day included a morning workshop conducted by WJZ's First Warning Weather Team that taught students about clouds, lightning, tornadoes and more. Orioles Head Groundskeeper Nicole Sherry discussed how these weather patterns affect the playing field at Camden Yards, as well as the impact on the game itself. The day also featured live weather experiments and a weather balloon launch atop the visitor's dugout. After the lessons, the kids stayed to cheer on the Orioles against the Tampa Bay Rays.

NEGRO LEAGUES PLAYER DRAFT

Prior to the 2008 Major League Baseball Draft on June 5, each MLB club selected a former Negro Leagues player as part of the Special Negro Leagues Draft. The Orioles selected Bert Simmons, a long-time Baltimore resident, who played for the Baltimore Elite Giants in 1950 as a pitcher and outfielder. Simmons is actively involved with the Baltimore-based James Mosher Little League Baseball Association, known as the oldest continuously operating African-American youth baseball league in the country. Simmons was recognized at Oriole Park in June, throwing out the ceremonial first pitch and attending the game with players and coaches from the league.

LATINO NIGHT & CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

Last July, the Orioles celebrated Latino Night at Oriole Park with a series of special events designed to honor baseball's rich Latino cultural influences. Several Latino players greeted fans before the game at a party with live music and festive concessions. Fan were also invited to donate new or gently used baseball equipment at the game to underprivileged children as part of the Orioles Advocates' annual Cardboard to Leather Collection drive, which provides baseball equipment for youth in need in Latin America, South America and Caribbean countries, including the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition to fan contributions, Legg Mason donated $15,000 to the Cardboard to Leather Program during a pre-game ceremony.

ORIOLES REACH FOOD DRIVE

Last August, the 22nd Annual Orioles Food Drive was held at Oriole Park to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. OriolesREACH, teaming with the Orioles Wives, Orioles Advocates, MASN and WJZ, collected non-perishable food items and cash donations for the Maryland Food Bank. More than 5,200 pounds of food were collected then distributed to soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout Central Maryland. A record-breaking cash donation of $30,000 was used to purchase turkeys for underprivileged families in Maryland for Thanksgiving.

ORIOLES REACH GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

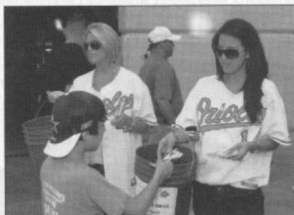

Each year, the Orioles and OriolesREACH invite more than 10,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region to experience the magic of Orioles Baseball. By partnering with various local non-profit and youth groups, OriolesREACH is able to provide children with free game tickets, concessions vouchers, an Orioles t-shirt, cap and transportation to and from the game. Orioles players including Jeremy Guthrie, Adam Jones, Melvin Mora, Dennis Sarfate, George Sherrill and Jamie Walker have purchased tickets for the program, which has benefited more than 50,000 children since the program's inception.

ORIOLES WIVES SILENT AUCTIONS

Last June, OriolesREACH and the Orioles Wives partnered to conduct silent auctions at Oriole Park to benefit the Family Crisis Center and St. Vincent's Children's Center. More than $16,000 was raised for these worthy organizations.

K's FOR KIDS

Each time an Orioles pitcher records a strikeout in 2008, CareFirst BlueCross/BlueShield will donate $25 to the YMCA of Central Maryland's Y Healthy Kids Program. In 2008, the YMCA received $25,000 from the partnership.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

In 2008, corporate partner Kelly & Associates pledged a donation of $2,000 to the University of Maryland Medical System's R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center for every save recorded by an Orioles pitcher. In total, $72,000 was raised to help UMMS save lives through the program.

SHANNON'S FUND

Last season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH established Shannon's Fund, a $50,000 endowment at the University of Maryland Medical Center to provide financial assistance to hospital patients and their families. Created in memory of Shannon Obaker – the team's Director of Community Outreach who bravely fought cancer for over a year before passing away in January 2007 at age 29 – Shannon's Fund is administered by the University of Maryland Medical Center. Funds will be donated to patients and their family members as need arises to assist with the general expenses associated with the treatment process, including hospital parking, alternate housing, food costs and household bills. The Fund raised over $86,600 in 2008.

DAY AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted over 26,500 youth at Camden Yards through their 54th annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), two Little League Days (15,000), Buddies Night (2,500) and Scouts Night (1,000) last season.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

Since the program's inception in 2005, the OriolesREACH High Five Fundraising Program has helped thousands of area non-profit groups, civic organizations, school and youth groups, and more raise more than $900,000. The program is very easy to execute; groups can sell either Orioles tickets or Orioles ticket voucher books in a variety of price ranges and seat locations to their loyal friends and supporters and earn up to $5 for every ticket sold. Special "Super Fundraiser Dates" even allow the organizations to earn more.

JUNIOR ORIOLES DUGOUT CLUB

The Junior Orioles Dugout Club presented by Chick-fil-A offers an affordable way for kids and their families to enjoy Orioles Baseball and receive exclusive rewards. Last season, in partnership with Chick-fil-A, OriolesREACH donated $5 for every kit sold at a Chick-fil-A restaurant to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, raising $16,500.00 for JDRF.

BALTIMORE CITY YOUTH CLINIC

In late May the Orioles hosted their annual youth clinic at Carroll Park in Baltimore City with over 300 Baltimore City kids. Current and former players and coaches helped instruct the participants in pitching, batting, baserunning and throwing.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

OriolesREACH teamed up with the Maryland State Department of Education's Division of Library Development and Services (MSDE) to launch the statewide Summer Reading Program. Designed to encourage young people to "Catch the Reading Bug," the program rewarded students who completed a reading log with prizes that included tickets to an Orioles game at Camden Yards. Plus, one student from each library system was recognized in a pre-game ceremony with Maryland State Superintendent of Schools Dr. Nancy Grasmick at Oriole Park. Last summer, more than 150,000 students participated in the Summer Reading Program. Registration forms and reading logs are available at all Maryland public libraries for students of high school age and under.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

Last June, OriolesREACH teamed up with the University of Maryland Medical Center and the Baltimore City Fire Department to host an American Red Cross Blood Drive. Participants at the event got the chance to meet several Orioles greats from the 1983 World Championship team and received an exclusive baseball celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the 1983 season. Everyone who donated blood also received free tickets to an Orioles game.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITY (RBI) LEAGUE

Funded by the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and a grant from the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the Reviving Baseball in Inner City (RBI) League was founded to help Baltimore City kids build healthy self esteem while learning baseball skills in a fun and safe environment. In addition to sponsoring the summer-long league, the Orioles hosted more than 150 Baltimore City kids for a day of RBI League games at Oriole Park in June.

WALTER REED ARMY MEDICAL CENTER VISIT

The Orioles stopped by the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, DC on their way to play the Nationals in June. Numerous players spent the day meeting wounded soldiers, signing autographs, handing out souvenirs, and thanking those who sacrificed so much for their country.

BRIAN'S BASEBALL BASH

Last August, OriolesREACH and Brian Roberts hosted the third annual Brian's Baseball Bash, a fundraising event for the University of Maryland Hospital for Children. The special evening for fans at the ESPN Zone in Baltimore included silent and live auctions of sports memorabilia to help the children at UMHC. Through the hard work of Brian and the OriolesREACH team, and the generosity of Orioles fans, more than $165,000 was raised.

KIDS' HOLIDAY PARTY

This past December, Chris Ray, Dennis Sarfate and Brian Burres led a group of current and former Orioles in hosting area children at the 30th Annual Orioles Children's Christmas Party at the ESPN Zone in Baltimore's Inner Harbor. Players served lunch, played games and signed autographs for the kids while the Orioles Bird and Orioles staff members handed out presents. In addition to actively participating in the holiday party, Ray, Sarfate and Burres teamed up with Baltimore Ravens players for a special shopping spree for holiday presents and household items at a local Target store that evening.

PLAYER AND MASCOT APPEARANCES

One of the best examples of the Orioles reaching out into the community is when Orioles players themselves appear all over town. Current and former Oriole players made nearly 200 appearances in the community in 2008 and the Orioles Bird flew to over 200 destinations in the past year.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable, non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through these contributions the Orioles helped over 800 non-profit organizations raise money for their causes in 2008.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1975, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 on his way to deliver food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a premiere ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Carlos Delgado, John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

In 2008, Melvin Mora was the Orioles Roberto Clemente Award winner. Mora has worked extensively with Mount Washington Pediatric Hospital and through the OriolesREACH "Cardboard to Leather" program has donated new and used sports equipment to needy children in his home country of Venezuela.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Dave Trembley enters his second full season as the Orioles' manager after guiding the Orioles to a 68-93 record in his first full season in 2008...After working 22 years in professional baseball, including 20 years as a minor league manager, Trembley was promoted to the Orioles' major league staff as bullpen coach and field coordinator prior to the 2007 season...Because of health issues with bench coach Tom Trebelhorn's wife, Trembley spent much of the first 2 1/2 months of the season in the dugout instead of the bullpen, serving as de facto bench coach to manager Sam Perlozzo...On June 18, 2007, with the Orioles holding a 29-40 record, Trembley was named interim manager, replacing Perlozzo...On August 22, the interim label was removed and Trembley was rewarded with a contract for 2008 and an option for 2009...The Orioles played well for two months under Trembley's charge (29-25 through August 21) before injuries and a lack of depth caught up with them over the final 5 1/2 weeks of the season...They finished 40-53 with Trembley as manager...In 2008, his club again fared well until mid-August, sporting a 61-63 record through August 17...Similar to 2007, a rash of injuries decimated the Orioles pitching staff and the club lost 30 of their last 37 games.

Prior to being promoted to the big league club, Dave compiled a 1369-1413 record, won two league titles and earned Manager of the Year awards in three leagues in 20 years managing in the minors...In December 2001, Baseball America selected him as one of minor league baseball's top five managers of the previous 20 years. He served as a coach in the inaugural Futures Game in 1999 and also served as manager for the Southern League and Double-A All-Star Games that season...Trembley worked in the Cubs, Pirates and Padres organizations before being named manager of the Orioles' AA Bowie team in 2003...In his first season with Bowie, he guided the team to a 13 1/2-game improvement over the previous season and was named winner of the organization's Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award...In two years at Bowie, his teams went 142-141...He managed the Orioles' AAA team at Ottawa in 2005 and 2006, combining to go 143-144...Trembley began his career in 1977 as a teacher and baseball coach at Daniel Murphy High School in Los Angeles...In 1980, he became head baseball coach at Antelope Valley College, a junior college in the Los Angeles area...He spent five years in that position before beginning his career in professional baseball as a Los Angeles area scout for the Chicago Cubs in 1984...The next season, he became an instructor in the Cubs minor league system until June, when he was named to coach at their Wytheville (VA) club in the Appalachian League...Trembley managed in the minors for the next 21 years, except for 1990 when he served as director of the day-to-day operation of Pittsburgh's minor league complex and spring training facility at Bradenton, FL...He began his managing career with the independent Kinston team in the Class A Carolina League in 1986...He joined the Pirates organization in 1987, guiding AA Harrisburg to the Eastern League title, earning EL Manager of the Year honors and being named Minor League Manager of the Year by Baseball America...In 1989 Trembley served as manager of the Eastern League All-Star team on its "Diamond Diplomacy" tour of the Soviet Union...He spent one year as manager of San Diego's AA Wichita team, in 1993, before rejoining the Cubs organization, where he managed nine years (1994-2002) at three different levels...Trembley earned his second league title in 1995 when he guided Class A Daytona to the Florida State League title, earning league Manager of the Year honors and being named Class A Manager of the Year by both Baseball America and USA Today Baseball Weekly...He also was named "Best Managing Prospect" in the FSL by Baseball America following the '95 season...In 1999, he was named Manager of the Year in the Southern League after guiding AA West Tennessee to a pair of first place finishes before losing in the playoffs...Trembley earned his 1,000th minor league win as a manager on July 15, 2001...He managed instructional league teams in 16 of his 21 seasons in the minors and also managed one winter, 1986-87, with Navajoes in the Mexican Pacific League and coached third base the next two years for the Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Trembley has a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education, both from the State University of New York-Brockport... He also did graduate work in sports psychology at Penn State... Dave, his wife, Patti, and their son, Kevin, make their off-season home in Daytona Beach Shores, FL.

NO PLAYING EXPERIENCE NEEDED

In 2007, Dave Trembley became the seventh man in modern baseball history to manage in the majors without having played professionally in the majors or minor leagues... Hall of Fame exec Ed Barrow (1903-04 Detroit, 1918-20 Boston Red Sox), Hugo Bezdek (1917-19 Pittsburgh), Judge Fuchs (1929 Boston Braves), Ted Turner (1977 Atlanta), John Boles (1996, 1999-2001 Florida) and Carlos Tosca (Toronto, 2002-04) preceded him. Trey Hillman, hired as Kansas City's manager in 2008, became the eighth person to manage in the majors without having played professionally.

BILL JAUSS' SUPERFANS

Dave Jauss' father, Bill, a retired sportswriter for the Chicago Tribune and member of the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Hall of Fame, was the co-host of a longtime Chicago radio show, "The Sportswriters." That show - and Bill Jauss - were the inspiration for the Saturday Night Live skits about "Bill Swerski's Superfans" in the early 1990s, with actor Joe Montana playing Bill Swerski and others - including Chris Farley, Mike Myers, John Goodman and George Wendt - playing parts talking about "da Bears" and other Chicago teams from Mike Ditka's restaurant.

BEHIND THE SCENES

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC—HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

Richie is in his 22nd season as the Orioles' Head Athletic Trainer, his 26th year with the big league club and his 33rd in the Orioles organization. Only the third Head Athletic Trainer in the 55 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954, he has the longest tenure of anyone to work as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. Last year, he surpassed the tenure of his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, as Head Athletic Trainer for the major league team.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as Head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's Assistant Athletic Trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming Head Athletic Trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

Richie was elected in December 2007 to a two-year term as president of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He previously served as a board member and treasurer for the organization, as well as secretary of PBATS' Executive Committee. He also currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002, he served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 season.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by ECU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebelt) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (28), Andrea (23) and Timothy (17). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL MBA, ATC—ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his 13th season as the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 25th season as part of the Oriole organization's athletic training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Orioles' rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994, a team that featured Michael Jordan, and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by ECU as a distinguished alumnus.

This past year Brian was named to Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records. He has been a member of MLB's Medical Advisory Board since May 2003 and also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP).

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties. He also served as Athletic Trainer for the American League at the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He has authored or co-authored research papers and book chapters on shoulder and elbow injuries as it relates to the throwing motion by professional athletes, and has lectured on elbow rehabilitation. Brian has a United States Patent pending for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. They have two sons, Brady (15) and Brett (12), and live in Towson, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and playing the drums.

JAY SHINER—STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: July 16, 1968

Jay begins his third season as the Orioles' major league strength and conditioning coach after 6 1/2 seasons working in the club's minor league system. Prior to joining the major league staff, he spent the previous three seasons as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, where he helped implement a uniform method of conditioning throughout the organization. Shiner also assisted the Orioles in spring training and worked closely with the rehab camp during the season in Sarasota, FL.

Prior to overseeing the organization's minor leaguers, Jay spent 3 1/2 years as strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' AAA affiliates at Rochester and Ottawa. He joined the organization in 2000 from University Sports Medicine in Rochester, NY, where he was the Director of Sports

Performance, providing services for athletes, teams and school systems in the Rochester area.

In 1997, he served as a health promotion specialist for Yagami Company, LTD, which included strength and conditioning services for professional baseball and soccer teams in Japan.

A native of Rochester, NY, Jay is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, with bachelor's degrees in both biology (with an emphasis on kinesiology) and organizational management from Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester. He competed as a professional kickboxer before retiring with a record of 23-2.

In addition to working with the players, Jay has volunteered his time to implement training and conditioning programs for members of the Orioles' front office staff, including lectures on workouts and nutrition.

Jay and his wife, Carolyn, were married in November 2006. They reside in the Hillendale section of Baltimore County.

RONNIE DECK—BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: October 24, 1977

Deck returns for his second season as the Orioles' bullpen catcher. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as hitting coach for the 2007 Frontier League champion Windy City ThunderBolts and was an assistant coach at Oglethorpe University and assistant coach and sports information coordinator at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, CO in 2006.

A 1998 graduate of Oklahoma Christian University, where he was a GTE All-Academic All-America and All-Sooner Athletic Conference catcher, Deck played seven seasons of pro ball, including two seasons in the Tampa Bay organization (2002-03), spending time at Princeton and Hudson Valley in the New-York Penn League, Single-A Charleston and Bakersfield and Double-A Orlando. He also played five years in independent leagues.

RUBEN FELIX—BULLPEN CATCHER/BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER

Born: June 24, 1970

Felix is in his second season as a bullpen catcher and batting practice pitcher for the Orioles. He served as bullpen coach for Culiacan in the Mexican Winter League in 2007 and also coached for Team USA Baseball's 16 and under team that year. He spent the previous three seasons, 2004-06, as bullpen catcher for the Cleveland Indians.

Ruben was head baseball coach at Galveston (TX) JC for three years (2001-03) and was an assistant coach at Texas Tech for both baseball and softball prior to that. He played baseball at Dodge City (KS) JC, Howard (TX) JC and Lubbock Christian University. He was named Rookie of the Year in the independent Texas Louisiana League after going 7-0 with 15 saves for Corpus Christi in 1995 and also pitched for Single-A Beloit and Stockton in the Milwaukee organization that year.

A native of El Paso, TX, Ruben and his wife, Michelle, have one son, Matthew Ripken (2).

JIM TYLER—ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 48th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (28) and Joshua (27). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER—VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 21.

ERNIE TYLER—UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: April 30, 1924

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man worked 3,819 consecutive home games at Memorial Stadium and Oriole Park, from Opening Day 1960 through July 27, 2007 – ending his streak only so that he could travel to Cooperstown, NY – as Ripken's guest – to see the former Oriole inducted into the Hall of Fame. His string of games included 3,769 consecutive regular season, 40 post-season and nine exhibition games, as well as the 1993 All-Star Game. Tyler has not missed an Orioles home game since his return from Cooperstown.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after games. Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March 1988.

In 2004, Ernie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, have been married 62 years and live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children – Theresa, Rogina, twins Phil and Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another. Sons Jim and Fred serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

PHIL ITZOE—TRAVELING SECRETARY

Born: August 26, 1937

Planes, trains and automobiles – not to mention buses, hotels and all the other accoutrements of the Orioles' team travel – have been the domain of Phil Itzoe for the past 41 years – the longest tenure of any traveling secretary in any of the four major sports leagues. In that time, he has booked and traveled in excess of 1.35 million air miles for the Orioles during regular season play (and that does not count spring training and post-season play, two post-season trips to Japan, as well as numerous bus and train trips).

Phil joined the Orioles in 1964 as assistant to the public relations director. In 1968, he took over the traveling secretary duties from Bob Brown, who became the Orioles' PR director (Cleveland's Mike Seghi has the second longest tenure among current traveling secretaries, having started with the Indians in 1975). In 1990, Itzoe was honored with the first Donald Davidson Memorial Award, given in honor of the late former Braves and Astros executive to the top traveling secretary in the majors.

A native of York, PA, Phil grew up in nearby New Freedom, PA. He played baseball and football at Susquehannock High School before transferring to York Catholic HS, where he played football. He attended York Junior College for two years before transferring to Millersville (PA) State College, earning three baseball letters while in college. After graduating from Millersville in 1960, he spent three years as a reporter for the York Dispatch before joining the Orioles. In January 2006, Itzoe was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Phil and his wife, TyLisa, live in Towson, MD. Their daughter, MariaLisa (18), is a freshman at Brown University. Phil also has a son, Josh (34), who played a season in the San Diego Padres organization. Josh and his wife, Jessica, have two children.

NICOLE SHERRY—HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977

Nicole Sherry begins her third season as the Orioles' head groundskeeper. She returned to the Orioles organization in 2007 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. Nicole and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

After serving as the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, Sherry spent three seasons (2004-2006) as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, AA affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

A native of Wilmington, DE, Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole is single and resides in Baltimore.

ELROD HENDRICKS

(1940-2005)

No one logged more time in an Orioles uniform than Elrod Hendricks. For 37 seasons, Elie opened the year in an Orioles jersey as a player or coach, 16 years more than Brooks Robinson or Cal Ripken. He spent 45 years on the field in organized baseball, the last 28 of them as the Orioles' bullpen coach. Elrod served as a catcher for the Orioles from 1966 until he was traded to the Cubs during the 1972 season, and again from 1973 until he was traded to the Yankees during the 1976 campaign. He was named bullpen coach following the 1977 season but was activated in both of his first two seasons as coach.

DID YOU KNOW...????

• Orioles infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1955. He hit 11 homers and had 18 RBI that season. The Los Angeles Dodgers David Ross hit 10 home runs and had 18 RBI in 2003. Orioles catcher Chris Holles holds the record for fewest RB: (40) for a player with 20 home runs, set in 1992.

• The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was in 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25 wins) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.

• Orioles Hall of Fame hurler Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in three different decades.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat in the majors.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher, winning 17 straight without a loss from Sept. 22, 1966 through Aug. 3, 1969, all of them coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever is shared by Wes Stock, who won 10 straight decisions between Sept. 10, 1962 and April 29, 1964 (including a perfect 7-0 in 1963), and Sammy Stewart, who won 15 straight games in relief over a two-year span, July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984. Stewart also won a game in that stretch as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game winning streak.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LONGEST RELIEF OUTING: 2.1 innings, August 6, 2008 at Los Angeles Angels...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 3, three times, most recently September 23, 2008 vs. Tampa Bay...WALK HIGH: 2, twice, September 2, 2008 at Boston and August 31, 2008 at Tampa Bay...HR ALLOWED: 1, three times, most recently September 13, 2008 vs. Minnesota...WINNING STREAK: 1 game, April 28, 2008 at Chicago White Sox

- Made his major league debut July 8 @TOR after having his contract selected from Norfolk earlier that day... Allowed a hit and hit a batter in his debut without recording an out
- Recorded his first major league win vCWS in a game that was suspended on April 28 in Chicago (while Castillo was with Triple-A Norfolk) and finished August 25 at Camden Yards. The suspended game makes it appear that Castillo's major league debut occurred on April 28, when in fact it took place July 8...He is credited with a win for the game on April 28
- Worked a career-high 2.1 IP August 6 at LAA
- Struck out a career-best three batters on July 30 @NYY, August 11 @CLE and September 23 vTB
- Two of his three HR allowed were hit by left-handed batters (Toronto's Adam Lind on July 22 and Minnesota's Denard Span on September 13)...The third homer allowed was to Cleveland's Franklin Gutierrez on August 14
- Fanned Boston's Kevin Cash on July 12 at Fenway Park for his first major league strikeout
- Left-handed batters hit .256 (10-39) and right-handed batters hit .262 (17-65) against Castillo, while opponents hit .189 (10-53) against him in Baltimore and .333 (17-51) on the road
- Had a 2.35 ERA in day games and a 4.42 ERA in night games

HAS GLOVE, WILL TRAVEL

Chris Gomez has played in 48 different stadiums in his major league career. With the new ballparks opening in the next two seasons (Yankees, Mets and Twins), Gomez has the potential to play in 51 different ballparks in his major league career.

Gomez has played in major league games in four different countries (Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico and United States) and Hawaii.

He has played in 10 ballparks that have been partially or completely demolished (Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, Busch Stadium, Cinergy Field, Cleveland Stadium, County Stadium, The Kingdome, Shea Stadium, Three Rivers Stadium, Tiger Stadium and Veterans Stadium).

Four stadiums in which Gomez has played are now exclusively used for football (3Com Park in San Francisco, Aloha Stadium in Honolulu, Olympic Stadium in Montreal and Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego), one hosts soccer and football (RFK Stadium in Washington D.C.) and one, the Houston Astrodome, is a tenant-less facility.

The only minor league park in which Gomez played a major league game is Las Vegas' Cashman Field, home of the Triple-A Las Vegas 51s, where the Oakland Athletics played several home games in 1996 while their stadium was being renovated.

- Led team with 10 wins, 190.2 IP, 120 strikeouts and 12 losses
- Finished 7th in the AL in batting average against (.242), 8th in ERA in night games (3.50) and tied for 10th with 12 losses...His 24 homers allowed were tied for 11th place in the AL, while his 3.63 ERA was 14th...His 190.2 IP were 21st in the AL and his 30 starts tied for 24th in the league
- Tied Daniel Cabrera for team lead in starts (30) and HR allowed (24)
- Threw his first career complete game August 2 @SEA, allowing just one run on four hits and a walk while striking out two...Retired 26 of the final 28 batters faced in the game
- Posted 19 quality starts, including six straight quality starts, May 13–June 7, (was just 2-3 during that stretch), five straight, July 28–August 18 and three straight, April 6-17, but did not factor in the decision in any of those contests
- 10 of his 19 quality starts followed an O's loss and he allowed two or fewer earned runs in 17 of his 30 starts
- The O's were 14-16 in his 30 starts
- The Orioles scored a total of 21 runs in the 12 games in which Guthrie was tagged with the loss
- Seven of Guthrie's 10 wins followed an O's loss
- Failed to complete 6.0 IP just three times in his last 15 starts (5.2 IP on July 23 vTOR, 3.0 IP August 29 @TB and 4.0 IP September 28 vTOR, in his first game back from disabled list)
- Threw at least 99 pitches in 22 of his 30 starts, with the only outings in which he did not throw at least 90 pitches being his first start of the year and his last two (August 29 @TB and September 28 vTOR)
- Made nine starts in which he pitched 6.0 or more innings and allowed two or fewer runs without getting the win
- Won four straight starts, allowing just one run in each game before allowing two runs over 7.0 IP and losing vBOS August 18...According to Elias Sports Bureau, over the last 30 seasons, the only other Orioles pitchers to win at least four consecutive starts and give up no more than one run in each game were Jimmy Key, who had a four-start streak in 1997, and Erik Bedard, who had a five-start streak in 2006 and a four-start streak in 2007
- Was the Orioles' Opening Day starter, his first such assignment, vTB and suffered the loss, allowing five earned runs in 5.1 IP
- Was placed on the disabled list September 15 with a right shoulder impingement...Was activated September 27 and started the final game of the season vTOR
- Recorded first major league hit June 29 with a double off Washington's Sean Bergmann

- Pitched for Tigres de Aragua in the Venezuelan Winter League, appearing in eight games (six starts)...Was 1-2 with a 6.97 ERA

PRO CAREER

2007: Rich spent his first full season with the Cubs, going 11-8 in 32 starts...The 11 victories, 32 starts, 183 strikeouts and 195.0 innings pitched marked career highs for the southpaw...Limited the opponent to a .235 batting average (170-724), ranking fifth in the N.L...Produced 17 quality starts on the season...Was one of four Cubs to reach double-digits in victories, joining Carlos Zambrano (18), Ted Lilly (15) and Jason Marquis (12)...Received just 3.4 runs of support when he was on the mound, the second-lowest mark in the majors...Produced a 1.73 ERA (41.2IP, 8ER) in his first six starts, April 6-May 5, compiling a 4-1 record, but went 0-3 in his next five starts, posting a 4.50 ERA (30.0IP, 15ER), May 11-June 2...Opponents batted .229 (36-157) with runners in scoring position...Left-handed batters hit just .191 (29-152) off Hill...Right-handed hitters posted a .247 average (141-572)...Spun a gem in his first start of the season, April 6 in Milwaukee, allowing just one run on one hit (a Corey Hart sixth-inning solo home run) while walking none and striking out six in 7.0 innings of work...Became the first Cubs left-handed starter to toss at least 7.0 innings and allow only one hit in more than 30 years, when Stats, Inc. began tracking the data in the mid-1970s...Continued an incredible start to the season with 8.0 shutout innings en route to the 3-0 victory April 19 in Atlanta...Allowed just three runners to reach scoring position...The performance lowered his season ERA to 0.41...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first Chicago Cub to win his first three starts with an ERA as low as 0.41 since 1918, when Phil Douglas won his first three starts with a 0.33 ERA in the "dead-ball era"...Gave up a career-high four homers in his third-straight loss May 22 in a 5-1 setback against the San Diego Padres...Earned his then career-high seventh win of the season in the Cubs 2-1 victory over St. Louis August 17 at the Friendly Confines...Tagged with the loss in Game Three of the NLDS

vs. Arizona October 6...Worked just 3.0 innings and allowed three runs on six hits while striking out three and walking two batters.

2006: Split the season between Triple-A Iowa and the Cubs...Was optioned to Iowa in May, only to return to the Cubs and establish himself as a reliable pitcher in the starting rotation, going 3-1 with a 1.93 ERA and 50 strikeouts in six September starts...His 50 strikeouts in September made him the first Cub to record 50 strikeouts in a month since Mark Prior struck out 60 in September/October of 2003...Earned his first career major league victory in his 10th career start...Tossed a career-best 8.0 innings, allowing three runs on six hits and one walk while striking out six in a 9-3 win vs. Arizona August 1...Struck out a career-high 11 batters September 6 vs. Pittsburgh, but did not receive a decision in the Cubs' 7-2 victory...Tossed 7.1 innings, allowing two runs (one earned) on four hits and two walks...Became the first Cubs lefty to strike out 10 or more since Steve Wilson fanned 10 on July 15, 1990, against the Dodgers...Recorded both of the Cubs complete games on the year - in back-to-back contests...His first career complete game and shutout came September 16 vs. Cincinnati where he allowed just two hits and one walk while striking out 10 in the Cubs' 4-0 win...Tossed his second-straight complete game in a 5.0-inning, rain-shortened affair September 22 in Cincinnati...Tagged with the loss after allowing four runs on four hits and two walks while striking out 10...Was the first Cubs lefty to toss back-to-back complete games since Steve Trout in 1987 and the first Cubs rookie to toss more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo had four in 1991...Despite making just 15 starts with Iowa, the PCL All-Star ranked second in the league with 135 strikeouts while amassing a 7-1 record and a 1.80 ERA (100.0IP, 20ER)...Named the left-handed pitcher on the 2006 All-PCL Team, voted on by league managers and Media...Following the season, was chosen as the left-handed pitcher on the Topps/Minor League Baseball Triple-A All-Star team...Recorded 10 or more strikeouts in six of his starts...He notched back-to-back 14-strikeout performances in his final two Triple-A starts of the season, July 16 at Albuquerque and July 22 vs. Memphis...Twice earned Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week honors - April 6-16, when he struck out 16 and allowed just two earned runs over two starts, and May 29-June 4, when he struck out 21 over 12.2 innings of work...Was named Most Valuable Pitcher at Triple-A All-Star Game in Toledo, OH.

2005: Made his first career big league start July 25 against San Francisco...Did not factor into the decision of the 3-2 Cubs win...Made his major league debut June 15 against Florida - gave up two runs in 1.0 inning of work...Pitched 4.1 scoreless innings of relief June 22 in Milwaukee...Walked two batters and struck out six in the 9-4 Cub loss...Hit an infield single off Doug Davis for his first career hit...Ranked third among all minor leaguers in strikeouts - fanning 194 batters in 22 games for Triple-A Iowa, Double-A West Tenn and Class-A Peoria...Led all minor league pitchers with 13.4 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...Opened the year at West Tenn, going 4-3 with a 3.28 ERA (57.2IP, 21ER) in 10 starts...Struck out 90 batters in 57.2 innings of work...Appeared in one game for Peoria...Picked up the win July 8, pitching 8.0 innings and striking out 12...Was 6-1 in 11 games (10 starts) for Iowa...Posted a 3.60 ERA (65.0IP, 26ER) with 92 strikeouts...Was named the Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week for the week of August 15-21...Allowed four runs (three earned) in two games during the week - gave up just two walks and struck out 21 batters in 13.1 innings of work...Recorded his first career complete game in a 7.0-inning win at New Orleans August 25...Named the 14th-best prospect in the Pacific Coast League and the fifth-best prospect in the Cubs minor league system following the 2005 season by Baseball America.

2004: Went 7-6 with a 4.03 ERA in 28 games (19 starts) for Class-A Daytona...Led the team in strikeouts, fanning 136 batters in 109.1 innings of work...Struck out a season-high 10 batters in back-to-back starts May 20 and May 25...Went 5-5 with a 3.93 ERA in his starts...Gave up three or fewer earned runs in 15 of his 19 starts and was unscored upon in five of those starts...Pitched well on the road, posting a 1.53 ERA (9 ER/53.0 IP) in those contests...Was selected by Baseball America as having the best curveball in the Cubs organization...Led the league with 72 walks.

2003: Split the season between Class-A Lansing and Boise, combining to go 1-7 with 149 strikeouts and a 3.87 ERA...Began the campaign at Lansing, going 0-1 with a 2.76 ERA in 15 games (four starts) for the Lugnuts...Held opponents to a .141 average and did not allow a home run...Went 1-6 with a 4.35 ERA in 14 starts for Boise and led the Northwest League with 99 strikeouts...Struck out a then career-high 13 batters and picked up the win June 30 at Everett.

2002: Began his professional career at Boise (A), going 0-2 with an 8.36 ERA in six games (five starts).

1-The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world - President George Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.

2-President and Mrs. Bush hosted Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.

3-President Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1990, which marked the first regular season game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

4-President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2,131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game outside of Washington.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theater, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites.

For Museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539 or visit the Museum's web site at www.baberuthmuseum.com.

to take the loss...It was his first start since July 25, 2001 at Texas...Recorded his first career save on 5/29 at Detroit, pitching the final 4.0 innings and allowing one run in an 8-4 victory...Pitched in all 3 games of a series vs. New York, May 25-27, his first consecutive outings of the season...Worked back-to-back games on 7 other occasions, including both ends of a day-night doubleheader June 12 vs. San Francisco...Had a 2.42 ERA (44.2IP, 12ER) in 32 relief appearances working on at least 2 days rest and a 4.94 ERA (31.0IP, 17ER) in 23 outings working on one day's rest or less...Earned the win in the Orioles' September 24 comeback vs. Detroit with a perfect 9th inning, striking out the first 2 batters to run his string to 7 straight strikeouts over 3 games...The seven straight strikeouts were two shy of Armando Benitez' club record of nine set in 1998 and tied with Sammy Stewart, who struck out seven straight batters in 1978.

2003: Pitched for Double-A Bowie before his contract was purchased by the Orioles on August 15 when Rick Helling was designated for assignment...Did not allow a run in 10 of 14 relief outings with the O's...American League opponents batted just .205 against him (17-83)...Finished 2nd on the Baysox with 85 strikeouts despite pitching in relief and spending the final month of the season with the Orioles.

2002: Missed the entire season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his right knee in an exhibition game against the Minnesota Twins in Ft. Myers on March 5.

2001: Was up with the Orioles for three separate stints, pitching primarily out of the bullpen...He worked as both a starter and reliever for Triple-A Rochester most of the season...Was first recalled by the Orioles on June 1 and made nine relief appearances before being optioned back to the Red Wings on June 25...Went 0-0 with a 6.75 ERA (9.1IP, 7ER) and appeared in seven of the O's last 11 games before he was sent back...Opened the season in Rochester's starting rotation and went 2-3 with a 4.30 ERA (37.2IP, 42H, 16ER) in 7 starts...Moved to the bullpen in mid-May and went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA (10.1IP, 2H) in 6 appearances, retiring 31 of 33 batters faced, before being recalled by the Orioles on June 1...As a starter for Rochester, he went 5-7 with a 3.92 ERA in 18 starts...Overall, he made seven relief appearances, going 1-0 with an 0.87 ERA, allowing a home run to the only batter he faced in his last relief outing...Finished 5th in the International League with 126 strikeouts...His 8.44 K/9 IP was 4th-best among IL starters...Worked 7.0 or more innings in 9 of his last 10 starts at Rochester, going 3-3 with a 2.60 ERA (72.2IP, 57H, 32R/21ER)...Opponents batted only .241 off him, tied for 5th-best in the league.

2000: Made eight appearances, all as a starter, in two stints with the Orioles...His contract was purchased from Triple-A Rochester on July 19 when reliever Darren Holmes was released, and he stayed with the Orioles for all but 6 days the rest of the season...Made his major league debut on July 24 at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees...He struck out 9 batters in 7.0 innings, matching Sammy Stewart's 1978 club record for most strikeouts in a major league debut...In his debut, Parrish struck out the side in the first inning, retiring the Yankees' Chuck Knoblauch, Derek Jeter and Bernie Williams...He was the first pitcher to strike out the first 3 major league batters he faced since Oakland's Blake Stein did it May 10, 1998, fanning Chicago's Ray Durham, Magglio Ordonez and Frank Thomas...He finished 4th in the IL in strikeouts per 9.0 IP (7.48) and 5th in batting average against (.235)...He was optioned to Rochester on August 31 to make one start for the Red Wings before being recalled on September 5...Made one start, September 12 at Texas, lasting 1.2 innings...Averaged 18.6 baserunners per 9.0IP (40H, 35BB, 36.1IP), which would have been highest in the AL if he had enough innings to qualify...His first 2 major league starts came against New York's Roger Clemens and Cleveland's Chuck Finley, who had combined for 412 career victories entering the 2000 season...Parrish's debut vs. New York on July 24 marked the first start by an Orioles lefthander since Doug Johns started the next-to-last game of the 1999 season, 10/2 vs. Boston.

1999: Pitched at Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie, striking out 96 batters in 102.1 IP...Transferred to Bowie and had a 2.81 ERA (32.0IP, 10ER) through his first 6 starts, but did not receive a decision...Had a 6.15 ERA (21.2IP, 15ER) over his next four starts.

1998: From May 1 on, went 4-3 with a 2.26 ERA (63.2IP, 16ER) in 12 starts, with 66 Ks...Lefties hit .191 (9-47) off him on the season...Was a spring training invitee to major league camp and started for the Orioles in the Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown, NY vs. Toronto on June 27, allowing 1 run in 4.0 innings.

1997: Combined to go 5-6 with a 4.23 ERA in 29 games (100.0IP, 95H, 47ER, 50BB, 96K) for Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie...Called up for a spot start for Bowie on June 17 at Norwich and won, 5-1, allowing a first inning run...Went 2-3 with a 5.06 ERA in 10 games for Maui in the Hawaiian Winter League following the season.

1996: Combined to go 4-1 with 3 saves and a 2.20 ERA between Gulf Coast and Bluefield (32.2IP, 8ER)...Allowed 24 hits, walked 20 and struck out 51...Led Gulf Coast relievers in strikeouts per 9.0IP (15.36).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

John Henry Parrish...Graduate of J.P. McCaskey HS in Lancaster, PA, where he played football, baseball, and wrestled...Made the all-league team as a pitcher/outfielder...Enjoys golf and bowling in his spare time...Was signed by Orioles scout Jim Howard.

2007: Spent the entire season with Triple-A Pawtucket, leading the club in starts (26) and innings pitched (153.2) and placing 2nd in strikeouts (110)...Went 6-6 with a 4.33 ERA in 27 appearances overall...Worked at least 6.0 innings in 15 of his 27 games, including 5.0 innings or more in all but 3 of his outings...Had most of his success early in the season, going 4-1 with a 3.15 ERA (71.1IP, 25ER) in his first 12 games (11 starts) through June 14, but posted a 2-5 record and a 5.36 ERA (82.1IP, 49ER) in his final 15 starts...Had a season-high four-game winning streak over 7 starts, May 15-June 19, and was 6-2 in 11 starts, May 15-July 12...Was winless in his final 10 starts beginning July 17 (0-3)...Did not allow an earned run in his first 9.0 innings of the season before allowing a solo homer to Durham's Chris Richard in the fourth inning of his second appearance...Tossed a season-high 7.2 innings with seven strikeouts and just two runs allowed on July 23 vs. Louisville...Struck out a season-high nine batters over 6.0 shutout innings on April 20 vs. Rochester.

2006: Pitched at three levels in the Red Sox system, making his major league debut on May 31 at Toronto when David Wells left the rotation with a right knee contusion...Began the year at Double-A Portland before making the direct leap to the big leagues...After 3 starts with Boston from May 31-June 11, was optioned to Pawtucket for his first career stop at Triple-A...Went a combined 3-8 with a 4.33 ERA in 22 starts for the 3 clubs, striking out 82 and walking 41...Turned in his best major league start on June 6 at Yankee Stadium, enduring a tough-luck 2-1 setback to Chien-Ming Wang...Pauley limited New York to 2 runs on 8 hits and 2 walks in 6.2 innings, striking out 2.

2005: In his first season in the Red Sox organization, set career bests for Double-A Portland with 9 wins, 27 starts and 156.0 innings...Ranked 8th among Sox farmhands in ERA...His 156.0 innings were 7th most in the Eastern League and 2nd most in Boston's minor league system.

2004: Was named the Padres' No. 7 prospect by Baseball America before the season...Went 7-12 with a 4.17 ERA in 27 games, including a team-high 26 starts, for Single-A Lake Elsinore...Led the Storm with 153.1 innings and 128 K's, 2nd most in the organization.

2003: Tied for 4th in the Padres minor league system with a 3.29 ERA at Single-A Fort Wayne...Was 2nd on the club with 21 starts, 117.2 innings and 117 K's despite being on the disabled list from June 6-July 5 with a right shoulder impingement.

2002: His 2.81 ERA at Short-Season Single-A Eugene was the best among all Padres minor leaguers and ranked 10th in the Northwest League...Led the league with 15 starts, allowing 2 earned runs or less in 11 of them.

2001: Made his professional debut with Short-Season Single-A Idaho Falls, where he led the league with 15 starts and tied for 2nd with 4 wins.

2008 IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW—ORIOLES IN 2008

NOTES FROM FORT LAUDERDALE: The Orioles went 10-17-2 in spring training...They had finished with at least a .500 record in spring training 13 of the previous 16 seasons...The O's went 4-11 in their last 15 spring games...The Orioles averaged 5,312 fans in 14 home games at Fort Lauderdale Stadium.

OPENING DAY: The Orioles opened their 55th season with a 6-2 loss to Tampa Bay...The O's are 8-2 in their last 10 home openers and have averaged 47,235 fans per game in those contests...Paid attendance was 46,807, making it the 17th home opener to sell out in 17 years at OPACY.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER: Based on Opening Day rosters (including players on the disabled list), the Orioles were the fourth youngest team in the American League (average age of 28.74 years), trailing only Oakland (28.20), Tampa Bay (28.24) and Minnesota (28.28)...The O's were eighth among major league teams.

ATTENDANCE FIGURES: The Orioles drew 1,950,075 fans in 78 home dates for an average of 25,001 fans per game...The 78 dates marked the fewest number of openings in a non-strike season since 1989 (also 78 openings)...The last time the Orioles drew fewer than two million fans in a season was 1988 (1,660,738)...1988 was also the last time the Orioles averaged fewer than 26,000 fans in a season (22,442).

AMAZING APRIL: The O's 6-1 start was their best effort since beginning the 1998 campaign at 7-1...The O's 15 wins in April were the most since 2005 (16) and brought the franchise record for the month above .500 (.511-.509...501)...April had been the only month in which the franchise had a record below .500 (was 496-498).

THE CLOSER: LHP George Sherrill recorded nine saves in his first nine save opportunities and finished with 31 saves on the year...His save total was more than the entire 2007 team despite not recording a save after August 5...Sherrill tied Gregg Olson (1991) and Randy Myers (1996) for the ninth-highest single season total in club history...On July 6, five years and four days after signing a minor league contract with the Seattle Mariners, he was named the 2008 American League All-Star Team...Sherrill, who came to the O's in the trade that sent LHP Erik Bedard to Seattle in February, spent all or parts of five seasons in independent baseball before signing as a non-drafted free agent with the Mariners on July 2, 2003...Sherrill worked 2.1 scoreless innings in the All-Star Game July 15 at Yankee Stadium, striking out Adrian Gonzalez and Corey Hart and allowing just a broken bat single to David Wright...Sherrill became the first AL pitcher to work more than two innings in an ASG since 1987, when Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen (3.0 IP) started and Toronto's Tom Henke went 2.2 innings in the 13-inning affair at Oakland...168 consecutive AL pitchers had worked two or fewer innings in 22 games between Henke's and Sherrill's outings.

AWARD WINNERS: DH Aubrey Huff was voted winner of the 2008 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media who cover the team on a regular basis...CF Adam Jones was selected as favorite new Oriole by members of the Oriole Advocates, the non-profit organization that assists the Orioles in numerous public and community relations functions and is dedicated to promoting the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels...Huff was named American League Player of the Week for the week of June 30-July 6...Huff batted .345 (10-29) with three doubles, three homers and nine RBI on the week to edge Nick Markakis, Alex Rodriguez and Roy Halladay for the honor...OF Luke Scott was named Player of the Week for the week ending July 20...Scott was 7-for-13 (.538) with two doubles, three homers, four runs scored and six RBI in four games...Aubrey Huff was named AL Player of the Week for the week ending August 31. Huff was 11-for-23 (.478) with four doubles, two homers, five runs and seven RBI...3B Melvin Mora was named AL Co-Player of the Week (along with Javier Vazquez) for the week of August 11-17...Mora was named Sharp Presents the American League Player of the Month for August...In 24 games, Mora batted .418 (41-for-98) with eight doubles, eight homers and a MLB-leading 32 RBI...He posted 13 multi-hit games in August.

A LOT OF TRAFFIC ON EUTAW STREET: Luke Scott's home run onto Eutaw Street on September 8 was the eighth of 2008, the most in one season since Camden Yards opened (seven in 1996 was previous record)...It was the 48th ball to land there in stadium history and the 19th by an Oriole batter...Scott's 420-foot walk-off homer July 19 off Detroit's Freddy Delisi was the first walk-off homer to land on Eutaw Street.

BIG STAGE: Orioles minor league RHP Jake Arrieta participated in the MLB All-Star Futures Game July 13 at Yankee Stadium...On August 18, in Beijing, China, Arrieta pitched six shutout innings with seven strikeouts to record the win for the United States in their win over China in the Olympics.

MAKING IT EASY FOR THEM: Orioles pitchers allowed 869 runs this year, with 213 of them reaching base by walk or being hit by a pitch...In comparison, the Orioles scored 782 runs this year, with 141 reaching by walk or being hit by a pitch.

HE'S GOT A GUN! Nick Markakis led the AL with 17 outfield assists.

BAD ENDING: At 5-20 in September (.200 winning percentage), the O's had their second-worst September ever...The 2002 Orioles went 4-24 (.143) and the 1987 Birds went 6-21 (.222).

CLOSE CALLS: After starting the season 18-10 in one-run decisions, the O's went 3-19 in their last 22 one-run games (lost nine straight one-run games from June 21-July 17 and again August 4-September 20)...After July 29, the O's won just one game decided by one run (September 27)...The O's won more one-run games in 2008 (21, 21-29 record) than they did in 2007 (13-31)...75 of the O's 161 games were decided by two or fewer runs (21-29 in one run games and 8-17 in two-run games).

YEAR IN REVIEW—ORIOLES IN 2008

A CASE OF THE SUNDAYS: The Orioles went 4-21 on Sundays (3-9 at home, 1-12 on the road)...The O's lost 15 straight Sunday games from April 13 through July 20 to tie the Arizona Diamondbacks, (who lost 15 straight Saturdays from May 8-August 14, 2004) for the longest streak of losses on a specific day of the week since 1939...The major league record is 21, set by the 1939 St. Louis Browns (Tuesdays from May 2-September 26) and the 1890 Pittsburgh Innocents, who lost 21 straight Fridays from May 9-Sept. 12.

INTERLEAGUE IMPROVEMENT: The Orioles went 11-7 in 2008 after going 79-114 against National League foes entering 2008...The 11-7 mark tied (with 1999) for the best interleague record in franchise history...The Birds won four of their six interleague series this year (only losses were at Milwaukee June 20-22 and at Washington June 27-29) after winning just two of the six in 2007 and three of six in 2006...Pitchers Jeremy Guthrie and Garrett Olson used interleague play to record their first major league hits, but they were the only hits by O's pitchers, who combined to go 2-for-20 at the plate...The sweep of Houston June 17-19 was the first interleague sweep by the Birds since June 13-15, 2005 when they took three straight from the Astros at Camden Yards.

12 STRAIGHT: With the May 10 win over Kansas City, the O's had defeated the Royals 12 consecutive times...The last time the O's defeated one opponent more than 12 straight times was against Toronto (15), from 1978-1979.

YOU COMPLETE ME: The Orioles threw four complete games in 2008...RHP Daniel Cabrera led the club with two (May 8 at Kansas City and July 2 against Kansas City) while RHP Jeremy Guthrie (August 2 at Seattle) and LHP Chris Waters (September 16 at Toronto) each added one...Other than Waters, the only other Orioles rookie southpaw to throw a shutout in the last 30 years was Arthur Rhodes on July 29, 1992 against the Yankees.

BIG NIGHT IN THE BRONX: On May 20, the O's put up seven runs in the top of the first inning at Yankee Stadium...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was just the fourth time in Yankee Stadium history that an opponent had scored as many as seven runs before the Yankees had a turn at bat...The other three times were: August 27, 1958 vs. KC, July 27, 1978 vs. CLE and June 18, 2000 vs. CWS...The Indians and White Sox both scored nine runs in the top of the first.

75,000 HITS: Luke Scott's third inning home run off Edwin Jackson on May 24 at Tampa Bay was the 75,000th hit in Orioles franchise history.

THE BOMB SQUAD: The O's hit five home runs in a game three times (May 20 at New York, August 17 at Detroit and September 14 against Minnesota).

HOME RUN DERBY: The O's and Yankees combined for nine home runs May 27 which traveled a total of 3,492 feet, which is 0.7 miles and 1,167 yards...The clubs combined for nine home runs before the sixth inning, and according to ESPN, was the first time that has happened in the major leagues since 1979, when the Cubs and Phillies played a 23-22 game at Wrigley Field...ESPN also stated the last time the Yankees allowed five home runs in the first six innings of a game was against Seattle in 1977...The Orioles won the game 10-9 in 11 innings.

500 CLUB: Boston's Manny Ramirez became the third player to hit his 500th career home run against the Orioles May 31 when he homered off O's RHP Chad Bradford to right-centerfield...Mickey Mantle went deep off Stu Miller on May 14, 1967 and Harmon Killebrew joined the 500 club with a longball off Mike Cuellar on August 10, 1971...Two players joined the 500 home run club as members of the Orioles: Frank Robinson (September 13, 1971 against Detroit) and Eddie Murray (September 6, 1996 against Cleveland). Ramirez joined Murray as the only players to hit #500 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

FIRST TIME WINNERS: RHP Jim Johnson (June 2) and RHP Radhames Liz (June 3) each recorded their first major league win in consecutive days, which according to Elias Sports Bureau, was the first time that had happened since September 1-2, 1978 when Dave Ford and Sammy Stewart beat the White Sox for their first wins as Orioles.

PERSEVERANCE PAYS: On June 11 at Boston, INF Oscar Salazar singled in his first at-bat in the big leagues since April 20, 2002 for the Detroit Tigers...Salazar's last big league hit was on April 19, 2002, when he homered at Chicago off Dan Wright...Since that homer in Chicago, Salazar had played for five different Double-A clubs, two different Triple-A clubs, and was out of baseball completely in 2005 and 2006.

THANKS FOR NOTHING: The O's scored a total of 21 runs in the 12 games in which RHP Jeremy Guthrie was charged with the loss.

500: LHP Jamie Walker made the 500th appearance of his career June 22 at Milwaukee...He was the 321st pitcher in ML history to reach the 500 games mark.

1,000: 2B Brian Roberts had three hits June 24 at Wrigley Field, giving him 1,000 for his career.

FAST 40: The O's reached the 40 win plateau in June (26th) for just the second time in the last 10 seasons...The 2005 Birds won their 40th game on June 18 of that year.

GOOD MONTH: The O's went 15-12 in June, their best mark in June since 1997, when they also went 15-12.

YEAR IN REVIEW—ORIOLES IN 2008

JUST MISSED: Nick Markakis fell one walk shy of joining Albert Belle (1999) as the only O's in club history to both walk and score at least 100 times in the same season.

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR: The O's bid to become the first team with three players with 50 doubles in a season came up short as Brian Roberts finished with 51, and Aubrey Huff and Nick Markakis each recorded 48 doubles...According to Baseball Prospectus, they would have formed the first trio of teammates to each have 50 doubles in MLB history.

HOME COOKING: The O's topped their win total at home from 2007 (37-43 last year, 35-46 in 2007).

DOUBLE-TRIPLE: Adam Jones and Brandon Fahey hit back-to-back triples in the fourth inning July 3, the first time the Orioles had consecutive three-base hits since August 4, 2000, when Luis Matos and Ivanon Coffie accomplished the feat.

CENTURY MARK: Nick Markakis' home run in the ninth inning July 9 was the 100th of the year by the O's... It marked the earliest date they have reached 100 since hitting the century mark on June 21, 2005...In 2007, the O's hit their 100th HR on August 23, and in 2006, they reached 100 on July 26.

HOME RUN CYCLE: On July 28 at Yankee Stadium, the Orioles hit for the home run cycle as Kevin Millar hit a three-run homer, Ramon Hernandez hit a solo home run, Adam Jones hit a grand slam and Aubrey Huff hit a two-run home run...The last time they homered for the cycle in a game was May 12, 1987 (Ray Knight 2R, Dave VanGorder solo, Fred Lynn GS and Larry Sheets 3R).

EMPLOYEE #848: CA Omir Santos became the 848th player in franchise history to wear an Orioles jersey after making his major league debut September 5...RHP Alfredo Simon was the final Oriole to make an appearance on the hill this year...He is the 401st person to take the mound for the Orioles (five were position players)...The 26 different pitchers used by the O's ties the 1996 and 2006 seasons for second-most pitchers used in a season behind the 27 used in 2007.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: OF Luis Montanez homered in his first major league plate appearance August 6 in Anaheim...According to Elias Sports Bureau, Montanez was the first player to homer in his first at-bat for the O's since Buster "Les" Narum (a pitcher) on May 3, 1963 at Detroit...The last Oriole to homer for his first major league hit was Nick Markakis on April 5, 2006.

MONSTER DAY FOR MORA: On August 17 at Detroit Melvin Mora went 5-for-6 with two doubles, two homers, four runs scored and six RBI...Mora tied a club record for most total bases with 13 (done 11 previous times, last by Chris Richard on September 3, 2000 at Cleveland), tied a club record with four extra-base hits in the game (13th time in team history, first since Miguel Tejada had three doubles and a homer June 1, 2005 at Boston), became the first Oriole with four runs in a game since Kevin Millar on August 14, 2007 at New York (one shy of club record set by Cal Ripken Jr. on June 3, 1999 at Atlanta), recorded the first five-hit game by an Oriole since Corey Patterson on July 22, 2006 at Tampa Bay (one shy of Ripken's club record on June 13, 1999 at Atlanta) and recorded the first six-RBI game by an Oriole since Rafael Palmeiro on July 9, 2005 against Boston...Mora and Luke Scott each hit a pair of home runs that day to become the second pair of visiting teammates to each hit two home runs in one game at Comerica Park as David Ortiz and Jason Varitek also accomplished the feat August 16, 2005 in 10 innings...The last Oriole duo to each homer twice in a game were Albert Belle and Charles Johnson on May 16, 1999.

A HISTORIC BRUISE: On August 20, SS Juan Castro was hit by a pitch (left elbow) for the first time in his career...Castro had gone 814 games and 2,300 at-bats without being hit by a pitch...Since 1956, he had the 11th longest streak of games without being hit by a pitch and the 13th most consecutive at-bats without being hit by a pitch.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES: Some of the Orioles entered the history books in the final game at Yankee Stadium September 21: Last batter: Brian Roberts...Last hit by an opponent: Adam Jones single in sixth inning...Last double at Yankee Stadium: Kevin Millar (fourth inning)...Last triple at Yankee Stadium: Adam Jones (second inning)...Last opposing pitcher to record a strikeout: Lance Cormier (Derek Jeter in sixth inning)...Last opposing pitcher to pitch at Yankee Stadium: Rocky Cherry (1.2 innings).

RECORD SETTER: 2B Brian Roberts broke his own American League record (set in 2004) for doubles by a switch hitter with his 51st on September 19 at New York.

FIRST TIMERS: Ten Orioles made their major league debuts in 2008: Rander Blierd, Alberto Castillo, Bob McCrory, Kam Mickolio, Jim Miller, Luis Montanez, Omir Santos, Alfredo Simon, Eider Torres and Chris Waters...Five Orioles recorded their first major league hit: Jeremy Guthrie, Luis Montanez, Garrett Olson, Omir Santos and Eider Torres...Four Orioles pitchers posted their first major league win: Alberto Castillo, Jim Johnson, Radhames Liz and Chris Waters...Three Orioles notched their first major league save: Rocky Cherry, Jim Johnson and Jim Miller.

50 & 100 MILLIONTH FANS: On August 19, the Orioles welcomed 24-year-old Ellicott City resident Kevin Gracie as the 50 millionth fan in OPACY history...On August 23, the Orioles welcomed 48-year-old Harpers Ferry, WV resident Velma Greene as the 100 millionth fan in Orioles franchise history...Gracie won $50,000 from the Maryland lottery. Greene won $100,000 from the Maryland lottery and both won Orioles' season tickets for 5 years. —

* Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and 8 others between '56 and '64). Most were Baltimore curve balls. Those curve balls, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City As-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, and Texas-1.

Legend: 1=includes Los Angeles ('51-'55, '05-), California ('66-'96) and Anaheim ('97-'04)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS: The Orioles went 3-3 against the Twins in 2008... Baltimore took two of three games in the first series in Minnesota, June 3-5... On June 3, the Orioles beat the Twins, 5-3 for their first victory in the Metrodome since June 10, 2006... Radhames Liz earned his first career win in the game... The Twins took the middle game of the series, 7-5, and Baltimore won the rubber match, 3-2... The teams met again at Camden Yards in September... After the September 12 game was postponed due to rain, Minnesota swept a doubleheader the next day, winning 12-2 and 12-6... Brian Burres appeared in both games of the DH, the first time an O's pitcher has thrown in both games of a doubleheader since September 29, 2004... Radhames Liz pitched 8.0 shutout innings in a 7-3 win to help the Orioles avoid a series sweep on September 14... Nick Markakis hit 429 (9-21) with five runs, two doubles, three home runs and seven RBI in six games against the Twins... Radhames Liz went 2-0 with a 1.35 ERA in two starts against the Twins, allowing nine hits, two runs and two walks in 13.1 innings.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: Despite not winning a series against Minnesota in the last six years, the Orioles are 62-45 against the Twins since 1996, including a 32-25 record at Camden Yards... The Orioles went 0-7 against the Twins in 2007, the first time they have ever been swept in the season series and the 13th time an AL team has swept an opponent in a season series of seven or more games... Cal Ripken collected his 3,000th career hit at the Metrodome on 4/15/00 with a single off Hector Carrasco... Mike Mussina pitched a one-hit shutout and struck out a club-record 15 batters against the Twins on 8/1/00... On 8/17/99 against the Twins at Camden Yards, Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance, passing Dennis Eckersley for most games pitched in Major League history... The Orioles swept a three-game series in Minnesota, 7/30-8/1/96, to begin a stretch in which they won 28 of their final 42 games to reach the playoffs for the first time since '83... On 7/15/93, Cal Ripken hit his 278th home run as a shortstop, breaking Ernie Banks' record... Bob Milacki faced the minimum 27 batters against the Twins on 4/23/89 in a 3-0 complete game... He allowed three hits and two walks... One runner was caught stealing and the other four were retired via double plays... The Orioles swept Minnesota 3-0 in the 1969 and 1970 ALCS... Jim Gentile tied a major league record by hitting two grand slams in a single game against the Twins on 5/9/61.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates are celebrating their 49th year and in 2010 will celebrate their 50th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball". Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in 77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 77. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

2009 Officers: President—John Ross...1st Vice President—Ann Peters...2nd Vice President—Bob Harden...Secretary—Jim Menendez...Treasurer—Bill Moon...Immediate Past-President—Scott Zimmerman.

Board of Directors: John Aldave, Carol Avery, Tom Cummings.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

Now in their 36th year, the Orioles Designated Hitters are a group of volunteers from throughout the community that help the Orioles increase their season ticket sales base. Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballpark with ticket sales to businesses and organizations throughout the Orioles region.

Members of the 2009 Designated Hitters Advisory Committee include Steve Altman, Glenn Babcock, Hal Hackeman, Bill Jones, Bill Michael, Jody Palmisano, Robert Parker, and Regnard Warren.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Whitey Ford, who retired in 1967, has beaten the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He went 30-17 against the Birds and is one of 15 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's. The others: Catfish Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Andy Pettitte (25-8), Billy Pierce (23-11), Roger Clemens (22-14), Frank Tanana (22-19), Bert Blyleven (21-15), Jim Kaat (21-21), Frank Sullivan (21-8), Luis Tiant (21-22), Early Wynn (21-8), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Jim Perry (20-22) and Earl Wilson (20-9).

Among active players, eight players have double-digit career victories against the O's: Pettitte (25-8), Roy Halladay (18-4), Jamie Moyer (18-4), Tim Lincecum (15-13), Kevin Escobar (13-5), Bartolo Colon (10-6) and Randy Johnson (10-7).

LOSERS: Catfish Hunter (26-24), who ranks second in wins against the Orioles, has also been beaten by the Orioles more than any other pitcher. At one point he owned a 23-16 mark against the O's but went 3-6 in his last 11 decisions from '87-89. There have been five other 20 game losers against the Orioles: Camilo Pascual (20-23), Jim Perry (20-22), Luis Tiant (21-22), Jim Kaat (21-21) and Fritz Peterson (15-21).

Among active players, only one pitcher has lost double digit games against the O's: Tim Wakefield (15-13). The next closest to double digit losses against the Orioles are: Tom Gordon (6-9), LaTroy Hawkins (2-8) and Mariano Rivera (7-8).

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2009 First Year Player Draft will be held June 9-10. The Orioles will have the fifth pick in the first round of the draft. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player selected by the Orioles who played for the parent club was their sixth round pick in that draft, RHP Bill Dillman, out of Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in O's history came out of the '67 June draft: No. 1 Bobby Grich and No. 2 Don Baylor. The Orioles selected a record four players in the first round of the 1999 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

FLAGELLO WINS ELROD HENDRICKS AWARD

DeMarva RHP Cliff Flagello was named winner of the 2008 Elrod Hendricks Award. Throughout the 2008 season, Flagello represented the Shorebirds at several appearances, interacting with senior citizen fans at various senior centers and adult daycare facilities and helped as Shorebirds players ran both Shorebirds youth baseball camps. At these camps he not only contributed by teaching the campers about the basics fundamentals of baseball but with his sense of humor and personality showed the campers that baseball is fun. The youth campers instantly felt a bond with him which was apparent later in the season where they became his fan club by making him a sign and cheering him on during games.

TENS ARE WILD

The Orioles became only the second team to score 10 or more runs in an inning in consecutive games in 2000. They had a 10-run fourth inning on September 28 vs. Toronto and followed it up the next night, September 29, with a 10-run second inning vs. the New York Yankees. The Houston Astros had an 11-run inning and a 10-run inning in a doubleheader vs. the New York Mets on July 30, 1999.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 48 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Camden Yards opened in 1992, 19 of them have been hit by Orioles, including five by Rafael Palmeiro and three by Brady Anderson. A single season-high eight homers landed on Eutaw Street in 2006. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 is the only Eutaw Street walk-off homer.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THROUGH THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 220-181, in their 55-year history (including post-season)...They have a 127-78 advantage in Baltimore, including a 45-37 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have belted 133 grand slams starting in 1960, fourth in the majors over the last 29 years behind Boston (146), Seattle (142) and the New York Yankees (141)...THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record three grand slams on Aug. 6, 1996 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the fifth time in history one club has hit two grand slams in an inning...Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam...Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987...TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit two grand slams in the same game and three times it has been done by an Oriole...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on Aug. 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the third and eighth innings...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961...Robinson did it in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 25, 1970...GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and led the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five bases loaded homers in '61...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in '87 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006...POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles...Cuellar connected in ALCS Game one off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota)...McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium...Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history...OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams...The previous club record was nine allowed in 2000...The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in three consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in three straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Edgar Martinez and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with three grand slams against the O's...12 players have hit two, including five active players (Ken Griffey Jr., Travis Hafner, Manny Ramirez, Gary Sheffield and Jim Thome)...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up two grand slams against the Orioles and the third to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Foster (1976) and Jack Hanishman (1955)...GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for second highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10...Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orsco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed four grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current Orioles, Chris Ray has given up three grand slams...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 556 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Orioles...The brother combos are the Rijkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 & 1996); and catcher Dick Brown (83-95) and his brother Larry (73), an infielder...The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy (54-55) and his son, catcher Terry (87-88); outfielders Don Buford (68-72) and his son Damon (93-95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. (68) and John Jr. (93); outfielders Dave May (67-70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Lincecum Sr. and his son Tim Jr. (2001).

Raines Sr. and Jr. were only the second father-son teammates in major league history...Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together for Seattle in 1990-1991.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit an inside-the-park home run off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat on June 6, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first insi-de-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat on May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen. Hentgen was victimized again on September 13 at Toronto, giving up an inside-the-park homer to Blue Jays catcher Greg Myers.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 24 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 41 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (15), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Red Sox (12), and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time...From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years...In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland...The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26)...Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles hurlers have reached their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75...The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (54 thru '67), was left-hander Steve Barber in '53.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 55 seasons.

The Orioles pulled off their first triple play in eight seasons on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland...With Indians runners on first and second and none out in the second inning, O's SS Melvin Mora allowed a short fly to left by Sandy Alomar to drop in front of him. The Cleveland runners - Travis Fryman at first and Will Cordero at second - apparently thought the infield fly rule had been called; it wasn't. Mora quickly picked up the ball and threw to 29 Jerry Hairston, who stepped on second base to force Cordero and tagged Fryman for the second out. Pitcher Sidney Ponson then took the ball from Hairston and, after a slight delay, flopped the ball to first baseman Jeff Conine for the third out on Alomar, who had begun to retreat to the dugout when the ball was hit into the air. After some discussion among the umpires and the ejection of Indians manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their last one at home, came August 25, 1992 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Lincecum on third and Chad Curtis on first, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Lincecum and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into two triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent triple play involving the Orioles came April 3, 1996, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at third and Rafael Palmeiro at first, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Ripken for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from third. Hamelin's throw to Cal Fasanaro was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league. Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentages.

The Orioles and Yankees lead the AL in Gold Gloves, with 18 more than any other American League team since the award was created.

Totals for each team: Cardinals 70, ORIOLES and Yankees 58, Reds 47, Braves 44 1/2, Pirates 44, Phillies 40.5, Twins 40, Giants 36, Tigers, Cubs and Red Sox 37, Dodgers 35.5, White Sox and Mariners 35, Senators/Rangers 34, Angels 33, Indians 30, Blue Jays 22, Expos/Nationals 21, A's and Padres 20, Astros and Mets 19, Royals 17, Brewers and Rockies 9, Marlins 6.5, Diamondbacks 4, Rays 1.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Pitcher Greg Maddux ranks first with 18 Gold Gloves. Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (2 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9, Mussina 7 and Palmeiro 3.

DID YOU KNOW...???

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now a pitching coach in the Orioles minor league system, is one of only 16 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th pick overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980.
- In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their career include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Doc Gooden, Bill Gulderson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, Rick Sutcliffe, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.
- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the 5th inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1965 World Series, the only reliever to fan more than nine batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix holds the Orioles regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever in a game, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.
- The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured four players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).
- Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did it Sept. 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.
- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1951.

ALL-STAR NOTES

LHP George Sherrill was named to his first American League All-Star team in 2008...Sherrill, who had spent all or parts of five seasons in independent baseball, was second in the American League with 28 saves entering the break...Sherrill went on to work 2.1 scoreless innings in the All-Star Game, striking out Adrian Gonzalez and Corey Hart and allowed just a broken bat single to David Wright...Sherrill became first AL pitcher to work more than two innings in an ASG since 1987, when Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen (3.0 IP) started and Toronto's Tom Henke went 2.2 innings in the 13-inning affair at Oakland...168 consecutive AL pitchers had worked two or fewer innings in 22 games between Henke's and Sherrill's outings...Sherrill and Colorado's Aaron Cook became first pitchers in either league to work more than two innings since Atlanta's Greg Maddux went three innings to start the 1994 ASG game at Pittsburgh...Sherrill is first Orioles pitcher to work more than one inning since Steve Stone started and retired all nine batters faced over three innings in the 1980 ASG game at Dodger Stadium...DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken started in 1996. They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996...THREE IN A ROW: Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his third straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least three straight seasons...He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98)...CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play...ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (four times); Roberto Alomar (three times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (two each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (one each)...ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle...He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only two-time winners...Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the third American League shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's fourth-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win...Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for six hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had seven hits in 1976...In 2005, Miguel Tejada won MVP honors with a home run, two RBI and a hand in two double plays to lead the AL to a 7-5 win at Detroit...Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled three perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in the 1958 All-Star Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium and was named the game's "unofficial" MVP...The official All-Star MVP Award was created in 1962...HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set then-records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format...ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/17/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on)...BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final nine batters in 4-3 AL win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its second year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, begin play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 15 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Ave. below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to pro and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team makes its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moves to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Ave. and 25th Street) and adopts the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird would be used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams are formed. One, also named the Orioles, plays in the new Union Association; by mid-season they transferred to Lancaster, PA, and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, becomes a charter member of the Eastern

Association, which would become today's International League, but the team breaks up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joins the National League. Games are played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th streets.

1894-96 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles win three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finish their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joins the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day.

The Orioles play two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joins the Eastern League. They are in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team wins the league pennant in 1906 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles join the International League. They would be part of the league for the next 42 seasons until major league baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), enters the newly formed Federal League. The league would fold after just one season. The team plays at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Ave. between 29th and 30th streets; two years later, Jack Dunn buys the ballpark and renames it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles, signs 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname is born. By July, Babe

Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, win a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years, 1920-24, future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove leads the pitching staff, going 106-36.

1920s-40s – The city fields two teams in the Negro Leagues – the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, leading the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracting interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, play their final season in the International League. After two votes fail, on September 29, American League owners approve the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium – now called Memorial Stadium – Baltimore returns to the major leagues and the Orioles return to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles return to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but go on to a 54-100 season.

November 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swap 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards lays the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles get 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson is signed; he makes his major league debut on September 17 but does not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

July 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosts its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retires the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

September 29, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurts the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, Manager Paul Richards will introduce the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

May 9, 1961 – Jim Gentile becomes the first player in major league history to hit grand slams in consecutive at bats in a 13-5 win at Minnesota.

September 18, 1963 – Steve Barber becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California. He is the first of the Orioles' 20-game winners; they have had 23 more over the last 40 years, more than any other team.

June, 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, takes control of the ballclub as majority owner. He will lead the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles go to the postseason six times.

December 9, 1965 – The Orioles make arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completes the trade, which was begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail Jr. May 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hits the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorate the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

September 22, 1966 – 20-year-old Jim Palmer pitches a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer will win 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stun the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson wins the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finish 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver is added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, is named manager of the Orioles. He goes on to post a 1,450-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they capture three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earns the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the '70 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles win back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they are beaten by Oakland in the AL Championship Series both years.

June 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, begins to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martínez and Rick Dempsey come from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, is among those sent to New York.

September 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium is filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

June 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth caps a monumental comeback against Detroit and gives birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles win the AL pennant for the fifth time and take a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-lee" comes back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

November 1, 1979 – American League owners approve the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ends both local and public ownership of the club.

August 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken Jr. makes his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record is the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decides to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finish second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

October 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with 4 games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, take the first three games at Memorial Stadium to forge a tie for first. But the Brewers spoil the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced his retirement at the end of the season, is saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lose the first game of the AL Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox three straight games. They lose the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken is named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lose a major league record 21 games to start the season.

May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

December 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs buys the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who had passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably lead the AL East into September. They eventually lose at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

October 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ends as the Orioles play their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken Jr. – who would add his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won in mid-season – hits into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit does not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles return in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

April 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushers in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0 on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helps revitalize the neighborhood and earns wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

July 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind. August 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos leads a group of investors – most of whom are Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approve the sale on October 4.

September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2. 1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

September 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles break New York's 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advance to the playoffs as the "wild card" team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the AL Division Series before the Yankees – with help from 12-year-old Jeffrey Maier – end the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles go wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor starts in his place at third base.

April 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken Jr. singles at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Garrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone. He is one of eight players with 3,000 hits and 400 home runs.

October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career will result in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame with the third highest vote percentage in history.

July 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, begins 24-hour programming. The network is the rights holder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

November 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveil their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2007, Cal Ripken Jr. became the 12th modern Oriole to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and the 6th whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

The 12 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include nine players, a manager and an executive:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	George Kell ('83, VCS*)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)	Lee MacPhail ('96, VCS*)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)	Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)	Earl Weaver ('96, VCS*)	Cal Ripken Jr. ('07, 96%)

*Veterans' Committee Selection

In addition to Ripken, both Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late '50s and early '60s, was named as a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager. Williams, an outfielder-first baseman as a player, managed 21 years in the majors with 6 different teams, winning two World Championships and four league titles.

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Hughie Jennings (ss)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)	Joe Kelley (of-f)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brubachers (1b)	Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)	George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles

GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971. Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

Native Marylanders in the Hall: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles...The other former Orioles — all of whom played for the International League O's — were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)...The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit 2 home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 2, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

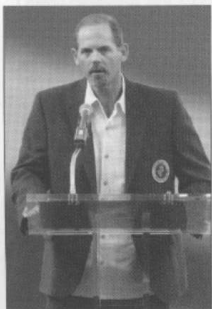

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their 8th scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961 Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990 Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967 Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998 Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983 St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007 Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

In 2008, former Orioles closer Gregg Olson was elected, bringing membership in the Orioles Hall of Fame to 45 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2008, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to Orioles longtime traveling secretary Phil Itzoe. Itzoe has been with the Orioles for 41 years and has logged more seasons in the traveling secretary position than any person ever in the four major team sports. He joined the Orioles in 1964 as an assistant to the public relations director, became traveling secretary in 1968, and has been in charge of the team's travel and hotel plans ever since, booking and traveling more than 1.35 million air miles during the regular season alone. In 1990, he was honored with the first Donald Davidson Memorial Award, given in honor of the former Braves and Astros executive to the top traveling secretary in the majors.

WILD BILL HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, comforting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck - and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award expanded the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award. He is remembered on a plaque displayed with the other honorees at the Sports Legends Museum, adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

Orioles designated hitter Aubrey Huff was named the winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award in 2008. Huff led the AL with 82 extra-base hits and set career-highs with 48 doubles and 96 runs scored, while leading the Orioles in homers (32) and RBI (108). Huff won the AL Silver Slugger Award as the top designated hitter and was named to the Sporting News' 2008 MLB All-Star team. Huff also earned American League Player of the Week honors twice (for the weeks ending July 6 and August 31) and of his 32 homers, 14 either tied the game (2) or put Baltimore ahead (12).

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Eight players -- Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3), Boog Powell (2) and Miguel Tejada (2) have won the award more than once.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl currently ranks 20th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons in the majors.

Earl was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and two daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a non-pitcher with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and three American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, fourth in the AL and fifth in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

CAL RIPKEN JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only eight players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star—a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two MVP (1983 and 1991) and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD with their children, Rachel and Ryan. He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, seventh on all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89) and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list since ERA became an official stat (1912 in NL, 1913 in AL) among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 15th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks eighth all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. Eddie lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughters, Jordan and Jessica, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Poca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,290 and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmut, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16 feet below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an in-laid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, all new irrigation heads were installed and in 2007, the warning track around the field was replaced. This past off-season, the sod was replaced with a sand-based blend of Kentucky bluegrass that is genetically darker in color and more durable than the version previously used at Oriole Park. Fans will notice that the field has a more vibrant green color in 2009.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to seven feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 25-foot high wall, which extends 100 feet from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only seven feet high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016 feet (but only 51 feet wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the eighth floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60 foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

Over the past two off-seasons, major improvements and upgrades have been made to the entire Oriole Park entertainment system. Prior to the 2008 season, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority contracted with Mitsubishi to purchase a new video system for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, replacing the Sony JumboTRON video board and Daktronics matrix and out-of-town boards used since the park opened in 1992. The new state of the art equipment includes a Mitsubishi DiamondVision LED video board and LED scoreboard in center field, an LED out of town scoreboard display in right field, and LED "ribbon" boards along the club level and upper deck fascia.

The new DiamondVision LED video board sits atop the LED scoreboard, reversing the placement of the previous system. The LED out of town scoreboard in right field features statistical information in addition to game scores. The narrow auxiliary matrix boards along the club level and upper deck were replaced with LED ribbon boards, providing better definition, brighter images and wider viewing angles. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet scoring system provides extensive statistical information on each player to help keep fans informed.

In order to preserve the traditional feel of Oriole Park while providing fans with the most modern technology, the Orioles hired an expert design team comprised of Janet Marie Smith, Gary McAuliffe and Sam Berkow to work with the Maryland Stadium Authority to deliver major technological upgrades while preserving the ballpark's historic aesthetic. Smith (Struever Bros.) is an original Camden Yards designer and the lead designer for the Boston Red Sox' ongoing renovation of historic Fenway Park. McAuliffe (PMK Consultants) is an audio/video design expert who specializes in sports facilities and other major public venues. Berkow (SIA Acoustics) is an audio expert with experience in acoustical design projects, including amphitheaters and stadiums. Phase two of the ballpark improvements was completed this past off-season and included major control room upgrades, new HD televisions throughout the ballpark and improvements in the coverage and quality of the ballpark sound system.

The ballpark entertainment control room replacement allows the entertainment system to transmit a high-definition (HD) signal to the main and auxiliary video boards and further enhance the fan experience at Oriole Park. With these upgrades, Camden Yards is one of approximately 10 MLB teams with full HD capabilities in 2009.

The sound system renovations include 530 new speakers in all, replacing those that had been in place since Oriole Park opened. To improve coverage and consistency of sound throughout the seating area, a number of additional loudspeaker positions were created. New speakers are located in the Upper and Lower Deck seating bowl, Club Level, Main Concourse, centerfield bleacher area and scoreboard. The new system employs digital signal processing (DSP) that is significantly more advanced than what was previously used and allows a much greater level of control. The result is a substantially more uniform listening experience throughout the seating area.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Bud Light Warehouse Bar) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the eighth floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60 foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45 feet. From home plate to the screen measures 47 feet.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 72 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

Total seating in the ballpark is 48,290. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as four major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- The Home Plate Plaza Lobby, Home Plate Lounge and Upper and Lower Press Levels were renovated during the 2008 off-season.
- Over the past two off-seasons, the entire ballpark entertainment system, including the audio, video and scoreboards, were upgraded or replaced.
- Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5 rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments...

- Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- Orioles' Retired Numbers: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).
- Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
- Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a short-stop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
- Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).

- Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.
- In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "Right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."
- Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.
- In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2008, nearly 40,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between mid-February and mid-December. For ticket and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234.

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1990s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES IN 2008: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed their 50 millionth fan at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Camden Yards is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball. In 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history entered the gates at Camden Yards. In 55 seasons and 4,050 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 100,336,392 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 50,490,804 fans in 1,334 dates in 17 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance they drew from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 37,849 fans per game in 1,334 dates at Camden Yards.

2008: The Orioles drew 1,950,077 fans to Camden Yards, for 78 home dates, an average of 25,001 fans per game.

The Orioles had six sellouts in 2008. They have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 762 of 1,334 regular season dates at Oriole Park (57%), including 12 of 78 home dates in 2008.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007 series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 15 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES

Three million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98), two million—43 home dates ('94), one million—22 home dates ('94)

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 10,507 for a game on April 2, 2008 against the Tampa Bay Rays. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

50 MILLIONTH/100 MILLIONTH

The Orioles reached two major attendance milestones during the 2008 season. On August 19, the team welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Elliott City, as the designated 50 millionth person to attend a game at Camden Yards. Oriole Park became the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball. In 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Four days later, on August 23, the 100 millionth person in franchise history was welcomed at Oriole Park. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, was designated as the milestone fan.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design in 1992, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been the standard-bearer for sports facilities in the United States, welcoming individuals from all 50 states and over 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the 50 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the past 17 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, meetings, tours and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

Contact Information

The general line for the Public Relations Department is 410-547-6150. During home games, the PR department can be reached in the press box at 410-547-6257. The PR department fax number is 410-547-6272.

Media Credentials

Requests for full season or single-game credentials must go through the MLB Credentialing System. Media members who do not have an account on the MLB system should contact Mick McDonald in the Public Relations Department at 410-547-6150 to establish an account. Credential requests for individual games must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the requested game. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in confiscation of the credential and ejection from Oriole Park. Those approved for credentials may pick them up at Home Plate Plaza, located between Gates D & E, beginning four hours before game time.

Ballpark & Press Level Access

Media must access the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D & E. Home Plate Plaza opens four hours before game time. Media should be prepared to show identification to obtain their credentials. The press box is located on Level Two (Lower Press) and is to be used by print and non-rightsholder electronic outlets. Home and visiting radio and television broadcast from Level Three (Upper Press). Wireless Internet access is available on both levels. Login information to access the Internet from the press level is available in the lower press box.

Parking

Limited parking for media is available in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. TV trucks may park in the ENG Lot next to Lot A. A hang tag or daily pass is required for access to each of these lots. Media without a parking pass must contact the Public Relations Department for a daily pass. Due to limited availability not all requests can be fulfilled.

Press Dining Room

Media with season, MLB, BBWAA or single-game credentials are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level. Food service will begin two hours before the start of that day's game and continue until one hour after the game begins, at a cost of $10.00 per meal. Light refreshments and beverages are available in the Dining Room through the seventh inning. Due to space limitations, only credentialed media and club employees with game-time duties may eat in the Dining Room. We are unable to accommodate friends and family members.

Field Access

Credentialed media may access the field at Camden Yards by taking the Home Plate Plaza elevators to the Basement Level and walking through the "Umpires Tunnel" between the home and visiting clubhouses. The field area is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time. Media are asked to remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times.

Clubhouse Access

Only media with MLB or team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Those with an Orioles-issued daily credential must have a "Clubhouse" sticker to access the area. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to "tight" interview shots. The clubhouses will open for media access 3 1/2 hours before game time and close one hour prior to the start of the game. Both clubhouses will open within 10 minutes after the final out of each game. The trainer's area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen and shower areas are off-limits to media at all times. Media are not permitted to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

Interview Room

Orioles Manager Dave Trembley will be available to media in a group session before and after every home game in the Interview Room adjacent to the Orioles' clubhouse. Orioles players may also conduct group interviews in the Interview Room in appropriate situations. The Auxiliary Clubhouse off the Umpires' Tunnel is used for larger press conferences and interviews.

Photographers

Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Camera wells are located at each end of the home and visitors dugouts. Camera positions will be designated by the Orioles' Public Relations department or Team Photographer. No still photographers are allowed in either clubhouse without the consent of the Public Relations department of each team.

No Autographs

Autograph seeking is strictly prohibited for credential media members. Any member of the media who requests an autograph will have his/her credential and press access revoked.

ORIOLES TELEVISION & RADIO

TELEVISION

Announcers: Gary Thorne, Jim Hunter, Buck Martinez, Jim Palmer and Rick Dempsey

MASN, the television home of the Baltimore Orioles, is an independent regional sports network that televises every available Orioles game. The network is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals and gives fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game. Before and after each game, MASN carries the exclusive pregame and postgame show, O's Xtra.

When the Nationals and Orioles play simultaneously, MASN offers a second channel, MASN 2, to provide the live telecast of both games. All of MASN's cable and satellite distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit www.masnsports.com for local listings) MASN televises more than one hundred Orioles games in high definition, and selected games are simulcast over-the-air on WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore.

MASN is the Official Cable Network of the Baltimore Ravens and carries prime time Ravens programming throughout football season. MASN also carries 300 NCAA Division I football, basketball and lacrosse games, many featuring local colleges, as well as other regional sports programming.

MASN's exclusive television territory covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.masnsports.com.

GARY THORNE

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, NCAA basketball, football and hockey during his illustrious 44-year broadcasting career. This year marks his 24th season of play by play coverage of MLB and his third on Orioles' MASN broadcasts.

Thorne has broadcast seven World Series and eight All-Star Games for MLB International TV and 12 NHL seasons, including Stanley Cup playoffs and finals for ABC/ESPN. He broadcast New York Mets games on radio and TV for 13 seasons, including the 1986 World Series. This season is his 19th year of MLB coverage on ESPN.

Thorne has covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC and has received three Emmys, two for his work with Mets TV and one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey. Twice he has hosted the Hall of Fame induction day ceremonies at Cooperstown.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program.

In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and teamed with Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts. He also broadcast games for the Baseball Network.

Thorne has also done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, member of the Army JAG Corps and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 13th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and his sixth season in the TV Booth on MASN. He is the host of "O's Xtra," MASN's Orioles pre-game and post game shows, paired in the studio with Orioles Hall of Famer Rick Dempsey. Jim will also call play by play of O's games on MASN with Buck Martinez or Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Palmer. He also has called play by play of MASN's extensive coverage of college football and college basketball. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 31 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 50, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's MLB "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles' first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He's been an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at the CBS Radio Network in 1982, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host SportsBreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame for football and baseball in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (24) is a graduate of York College, PA and is working in the television field. Jeff (22) is a senior at York College and Allie (18) is a senior at Fallston High School, and a member of the school's back to back state championship field hockey teams. They also have two faithful dogs, Bobby and Sadie.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 17th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Orioles broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found in the retired numbers portion of the Records and History section.

BUCK MARTINEZ

Buck Martinez returns for his seventh season as an Orioles television analyst, bringing a wealth of baseball experience to the broadcast booth. He will team with Gary Thorne or Jim Hunter to provide color commentary for Orioles games.

In addition to his Orioles duties, Martinez is in his fifth year as a co-host on "MLB This Morning," a news-magazine style baseball show that airs weekday mornings on XM Satellite Radio. He also is an analyst on TBS's Sunday MLB game of the week and last season worked as a broadcaster for the American League Division and Championship Series for the network.

Martinez' extensive resume includes over 31 years as a player and manager in the American League and over 24 years of experience in baseball broadcasting on television and radio. Beginning in 1967 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, Martinez spent 23 years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Kansas City Royals, Milwaukee Brewers and Toronto Blue Jays organizations. He appeared in the postseason with Kansas City in 1976, batting .333 in the five-game ALCS against the New York Yankees, and wrote two books about his experiences with the Blue Jays, "From Worst to First" (1985) and "The Last Out" (1986).

Martinez, 60, also served as manager for Toronto in 2001 and part of the 2002 season, compiling a 100-115 record. In 2005, he managed the United States team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic, a 16-team international tournament that featured some of the best players in the world competing for their home countries.

Martinez' first experience with broadcasting came in 1982, when he covered the American League Championship Series, the World Series and the All-Star Game for the Telemecia Radio Network. His television broadcast career began in 1987 as a color commentator for the Toronto Blue Jays on The Sports Network. He began working with ESPN radio and television in 1992, a position he held through the 2002 season. In 1995, Martinez was awarded a Sports EMMY Award for his work on ESPN's coverage of Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game.

A California native, Martinez attended Sacramento City College, Sacramento State University, and Central Missouri State University. He and his wife, Arlene, reside in Clearwater, FL. They have one son, Casey, a 47th round pick by Toronto in the 2000 First Year Player Draft.

RICK DEMPSEY

Former Orioles catcher and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey is in his third year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team after five years on the club's coaching staff. He teams with Jim Hunter to host the "O's Xtra" pre- and post-game shows on MASN, and will also serve as an analyst on a selection of game broadcasts.

This season marks Dempsey's 42nd year working in professional baseball. He played for 24 major league seasons with six teams, including 11 1/2 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for eighth all-time in seasons played and is one of only three catchers, along with Tim McCarver and Carlton Fisk, to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' 4-games-to-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Rick batted .233 with 96 home runs and 471 RBI in his career, which began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He was traded to the New York Yankees in 1973 and, in 1976, to the Orioles as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor... He became the Orioles' regular catcher in 1977 and for 10 years was the Orioles' primary backstop, catching a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving the Orioles, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles (1988-90) and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in '92. He had a .988 career fielding percentage.

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-2006, he served as a first base coach, third base coach and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, will return as a catcher with the Orioles this season. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

AMBER THEOHARIS

Amber Theoharis returns to the Orioles' broadcast team on MASN this season as a sideline reporter, providing live in-game coverage and player interviews for MASN's pre and post-game shows O's Xtra.

This fall, the Baltimore area native will enter her sixth season covering the Baltimore Ravens as host of MASN's post-game show Ravens Xtra and Playmakers, a call-in television talk show.

In addition to her MASN duties Amber is a columnist for the Baltimore-based newspaper Press Box, writing her weekly editorial Like it Is.

Prior to joining MASN, Amber was the weekend sports anchor and reporter at FOX45 in Baltimore, and also hosted Ravens Wired, a weekly NFL magazine show. Throughout her career Amber has held on-air positions at WSYX-TV in Columbus, OH; WNBC-TV in New York City; New 12 Long Island and WBOC-TV in Salisbury MD. She began her career behind the scenes at WJLA-TV in Washington, D.C.

An Emmy-award-winning sports journalist who was previously named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, Amber is a proud graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel and Fred Manfra

CBS Radio's 105.7 The Fan returns as the flagship station for the Orioles in 2009, airing all 162 regular season games and 12 spring training games. In addition to game broadcasts, The Fan's Orioles programming for the upcoming year includes daily All-Access Pre- and Post-Game shows, weekly Insider Roundtable and Manager's shows throughout the season, and a weekly Hot Stove Show during the off-season.

This is the ninth year of the Orioles' partnership with ESPN 980 to broadcast all Orioles games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. This is the third year of the Orioles' partnership with WOYK (1350 AM) in York, PA. In all, there are 40 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering four states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel with team with Fred Manfra for his sixth straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio.

Joe has broadcast Major League Baseball for 31 years, including eight seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-08. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 61, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in Major League Baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCCO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his nearly 32 years of radio work with Major League Baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 30 postseason games and six no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children: Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 17th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in 1993, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL Radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984); Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988); Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992); and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is president of the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris hospice center. They have two adult daughters—Michelle, who lives with her husband Ben in Camarillo, CA, and Stephanie, who resides in Coconut Grove, FL and is a fourth grade teacher.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 38th year as a local sportscaster and begins his third year on the Orioles broadcast team as host of Orioles pre- and post-game shows on 105.7 The Fan. He will also do some work on television as a co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pre- and post-game shows. Davis previously spent 17 seasons as a host on Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984-2000.

A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

Tom's national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis serves as a sports update anchor on Baltimore's ESPN Radio 1300 AM on weekday mornings and co-hosts a sports talk show each Saturday afternoon on the station. He also produces and hosts "Touchdown Baltimore" and "Take Me Out To The Ballgame," shows that profile the Baltimore Ravens and Orioles and air on MASN weekly during the teams' respective seasons.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife Bonnie and is the father of two adult children, Malinda and Tad. He also has a stepdaughter, Mandi, a grandson, Hunter, and a granddaughter, Georgia.

DAVE JOHNSON

Former major league pitcher and Middle River (Baltimore County) native Dave Johnson will serve as co-host of the Orioles' pre- and post-game shows on 105.7 The Fan, as well as serving as a color analyst on MASN's coverage.

Johnson spent all or parts of five seasons in the majors, including three seasons with the Orioles, 1989-91. In his second week with the O's, he earned American League "Player of the Week" honors with a pair of complete-game victories in early August. After helping the '89 "Why Not?" club stay in the pennant race to the final weekend of the season, Johnson led the 1990 Orioles with 13 wins and O's starters with a 4.10 ERA, while finishing second on the staff in starts and innings pitched. He went 21-24 with a 4.84 ERA and seven complete games in 66 appearances for the Orioles.

After graduating from Overlea High School in eastern Baltimore County in 1977, Johnson drove a tractor-trailer for several years before enrolling at Baltimore City Community College, leading the school to the 1982 Junior College World Series. He was signed as an undrafted free agent by Pittsburgh in 1982 and made his big league debut with the Pirates in 1987. He finished his playing career in 1993 with Detroit after compiling a Major League record of 22-25. Dave also pitched extensively in winter baseball, leading the Dominican team to the Caribbean World Series in 1993, where he faced Fernando Valenzuela in the opening game in Mazatlan, Mexico. He was the only American player on the team and beat Puerto Rico in the Semi-Final of the series.

His first experience in broadcasting came in 1996, when he served as color analyst for Home Team Sports' production of the 16-18 year old Babe Ruth World Series. He also spent two years as a post-game analyst for Comcast SportsNet before joining the Orioles' flagship stations in 2007.

Dave also currently serves as the co-host of The Tom Davis Show live on 105.7 The Fan and MASN each Saturday. He currently runs Dave Johnson's Baseball Academy, providing baseball instruction to individuals and small groups. He lives in Kingsville, MD with his wife, Tera. Their oldest son, Steve (21), is a pitcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization, and their youngest, Daniel (18), is a student at The Sheffield Institute of Broadcasting interested in film and videography.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award. Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('80-'81) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.
